Notes On Lord Jim York Notes:

Notes and Queries ,1901 Michael Oakeshott Selected Writings Collection Michael Oakeshott,2014-08-26 A collection of 6 volumes of Oakeshott's work Notebooks 1922-86 Early Political Writings 1925-30 The Concept of a Philosophical Jurisprudence Vocabulary of a Modern European State Lectures in the History of Political Thought and What is History Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1983 Michael Oakeshott: Notebooks, 1922-86 Michael Oakeshott,Luke O'Sullivan,2014-01-21 From the 1920s to the 1980s Oakeshott filled dozens of notebooks with his private reflections both personal and intellectual Their contents range from aphorisms to miniature essays forming a unique record of his intellectual trajectory over his entire career This volume makes them accessible in print for the first time drawing together a host of his previously inaccessible observations on politics philosophy art education and much else besides Religion in particular emerges as an ongoing concern for him in a way that is not visible from his published works The notebooks also provide a unique source of insight into Oakeshott's musings on life thanks to the hitherto unsuspected existence of the series of Belle Dame notebooks that were written in the late 1920s and early 1930s but which only came to light two decades after his death At the same period in which he was developing the concepts that would form Experience and its Modes Oakeshott's personal life lead him to reflect extensively on love and death themes that highlight his enduring romantic affinities Accompanied by an original editorial introduction the volume allows readers to see for themselves exactly which works Oakeshott used in compiling each of his notebooks providing a much clearer record of his intellectual influences than has previously been available It will be an essential addition to the library of his works for all those interested in his ideas Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1964 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk,2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors' experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over-determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines Library Notes North Carolina College for Women. Library,1922

Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1914 The Publishers Weekly ,1924 Joseph Conrad: Betrayal and Identity Robert Hampson,2016-07-27 Through attention to incidents of betrayal and self betrayal in his fiction this book traces the development of Conrad's conception of identity through the three phases of his career the self in isolation the self in society and the sexualised self It shows how the early fiction negotiates the opposed dangers of the self ideal and the surrender to passion how the middle fiction tests the ideal code psychologically and ideologically and how the late fiction probes sexuality and morbid psychology Joseph Conrad Bruce Teets,2020-04-30 Originally published in 1990 this is a comprehensive and annotated bibliography of the writings on Joseph Conrad and his works Covering the years from 1895 to 1975 it also includes indexes of authors secondary works periodicals and newspapers foreign languages and primary titles Part of a series of annotated bibliographies on English Literature in Transition 1880-1920 this will be a valuable resource for students of literature The Birth of Liberal Guilt in the English Novel Daniel Born,1995 Daniel Born explores the concept of liberal guilt as it first developed in British political and literary culture between the late Romantic period and World War I Disturbed by the twin spectacle of urban poverty at home and imperialism abroad major novel Conrad's Fiction as Critical Discourse Richard Ambrosini,1991-07-26 Joseph Conrad's comments about his works have commonly been dismissed as theoretically unsophisticated while the critical notions of James Woolf and Joyce have come to shape our understanding of the modern novel Richard Ambrosini's study of Conrad's Fiction as Critical Discourse makes an original claim for the importance of his theoretical ideas as they are formed tested and eventually redefined in Heart of Darkness and Lord Jim Setting the narrator's discourse in these tales in the context of the dynamic interplay of Conrad's fictional with his non-fictional writings and of the transformations in his narrative forms Ambrosini defines Conrad's view of fiction and the artistic ideal underlying his commitment as a writer in a new and challenging way Conrad's innovative techniques as a novelist are shown in the continuity of his theoretical enterprise from the early search for an artistic prose and a personal novel form to the later dislocations of perspective achieved by manipulation of conventions drawn from popular fiction This reassessment of Conrad's critical thought offers a new perspective on the transition from the Victorian novel to contemporary fiction Joseph Conrad Ruth Matilda Stauffer,1922 Joseph Conrad ,1975 Josheph Conrad: His Romantic-Realism Ruth Matilda Stauffer,1969 The Historic Note-book Ebenezer Cobham Brewer,1899 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re-shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Rethinking Joseph Conrad's Concepts of Community Kaoru Yamamoto, 2017-04-20 Rethinking Joseph Conrad's Concepts of Community uses Conrad's phrase strange fraternity from The Rover as a starting point for an exploration of the concept of community in his writing including his neglected vignettes and later stories Drawing on the work of continental thinkers including Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Hannah Arendt Yamamoto offers original readings of Heart of Darkness The Nigger of the Narcissus The Rover and Suspense and the short stories The Secret Sharer The Warrior's Soul and The Duel Working at the intersection between literature and philosophy this is a unique and interdisciplinary engagement with Conrad's work Dialogue and Literature Michael Steven Macovski, 1994 Extending and reframing the works of Bakhtin Gadamer Ong and Foucault with particular emphasis on Bakhtin's late essays Macovski constructs a theoretical model of literary dialogue and applies it to a range of Romantic texts In reconsidering specific works within the context of cultural heuristics rhetorical theory and literary history Macovski redefines Romantic discourse as both extratextual and agonistic He thereby re-evaluates such Romantic topics as the history of the autotelic self the proliferation of lyric orality and the nineteenth century critique of rhetoric He examines poetry by Wordsworth and Coleridge as well as such nineteenth century prose works as Frankenstein Wuthering Heights and Heart of Darkness
