Denisoff, 2004-03-19 A must read for scholars of visuality gender and sexuality Denisoff s study explores the ways in which gothic sensation and noir literature and cinema manipulated common notions of the visual in order to challenge sex and gender based assumptions that marginalized certain people and desires Addressing authors and directors such as Mary Braddon Wilkie Collins Oscar Wilde Vernon Lee Virginia Woolf Daphne du Maurier Alfred Hitchcock Otto Preminger and Fritz Lang this study shows that what a society gets is often what it tries hardest not to see The Body in the Anglosphere, 1880-1920 Robert W. Thurston, 2021-12-30 Focusing on the body in every chapter this book examines the changing meanings and profound significance of the physical form among the Anglo Saxons from 1880 to 1920 They formed an imaginary but in many ways quite real community that ruled much of the world Among them racism became more virulent To probe the importance of the body this book brings together for the first time the many areas in which the physical form was newly or more extensively featured from photography through literature frontier wars violent sports and the global circus Sex sexuality concepts of gender including women s possibilities in all areas of life and the meanings of race and of civilization figured regularly in Anglo discussions Black people challenged racism by presenting their own photos of respectable folk As all this unfolded Anglo men and women faced the problem of maintaining civilized control vs the need to express uninhibited feeling With these issues in mind it is evident that the origins of today s debates about race and gender lie in the late nineteenth century Art Books 1980-1984 R.R.
