Early Years Care and Education ,1999 Early Years Care and Education Maria Robinson,Kate Beith,Lynda Pullan,1998 This resource pack covers the eight core units and the five option units for NVQ level 2 in Early Years Care and Education The Early Years Reflective Practice Handbook Avril Brock,2014-07-17 What do early childhood practitioners need to know about reflection and reflective practice Ongoing reforms in early childhood care and education social policy affect all aspects of young children s and their families lives Decisions are being undertaken at a rapid pace and there is a need for those working in the field of Early Years to consolidate and reflect on their knowledge and practice building on what they already know This timely new book aims to support reflective practice for those working with young children in everyday work and in the wider political context whatever their professional role and whatever level of qualification they hold It takes a fresh look at a breadth of issues relating to early childhood care and education reflecting on policy knowledge and practice Incorporating practical reflection activities case studies exemplar scenarios and questions in each chapter the book considers policy developments and how these have affected young children and their families issues around socio culturalism language ethnicity disposition gender inclusion and socio economics when working with families learning through play and the notions of quality observation and assessment and continuity contemporary issues that practitioners and students on placement may encounter in their everyday work deepening reflective thinking and practice through ongoing and continuing professional development With practical guidance to help the reader reflect on their own practice this text offers invaluable support to early years practitioners looking to develop their career and achieving higher qualification at both undergraduate and at Master s level The book is a must for students on early years courses including early childhood studies initial teacher training and early years teacher status Health and Social Care for Foundation GNVQ Liam Clarke,2000 This completely revised Health and Social Care textbook is written specifically for the 2000 specifications It covers all nine Foundation units and is written in an appropriate language for Foundation level students A unit by unit approach that follows the syllabus precisely ensures complete knowledge coverage British Qualifications Kogan Page,2006 The field of professional academic and vocational qualifications is ever changing The new edition of this highly successful and practical guide provides thorough information on all developments Fully indexed it includes details on all university awards and over 200 career fields their professional and accrediting bodies levels of membership and qualifications It acts as an one stop guide for careers advisors students and parents and will also enable human resource managers to verify the qualifications of potential employees Professionalism and Leadership in Early Childhood Education and Care Mary A. Dyer,Samantha McMahon,2022-12-23 Professionalism and Leadership in Early Childhood Education and Care explores the tension between what early years practitioners are expected to achieve and the level of expertise and understanding required to underpin this It examines the impact of recent policies on the agency of individual practitioners and the culture and ethos of their settings and questions the driving factors behind reforms to curriculum and practice and where this locates practitioners and their provision. Bringing together the latest research and ideas on professionalism and leadership, the book explores how professional status is understood and acquired and what makes this problematic in ECEC. It explores the impact of different leadership approaches, what needs to be challenged, and sets out how the workforce might assert its own identity and values and continue to advocate for the needs of young children. Including case studies to illustrate the lived experiences of individual practitioners as they worked towards becoming graduate professionals, this will be valuable reading for early years professionals engaged in undergraduate and postgraduate study and those researching policy development and professional identity within ECEC.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2003

Supporting Children's Learning in the Early Years Linda Miller, Jane Devereux, Carrie Cable, Gill Goodliff, 2014-12-05. Supporting Children's Learning in the Early Years is aimed at early years practitioners who are developing their knowledge and understanding of professional practice through studying at undergraduate level. The book encourages readers to consider their professional development as reflective practitioners, building on and supporting the government agenda to provide quality provision for young children and their families. Combining theory and practice and bringing together current research and thinking in a broad range of areas, the book covers: Learning environments; young children as learners; assessment of learning; well-being and children's rights; diversity and inclusion; Learning and development; children's development including social and emotional development; literacy and mathematical development; the potential of ICT; fostering creativity; musical development; and knowledge and understanding of the world. Reflective practice, the learning environment, safeguarding, and wellbeing of the reflective practitioner. Throughout the contributions in this book encourage the reader to consider the diverse range of experiences which young children bring to early years and early primary settings and suggest ways in which they can be supported The book will also be a valuable and unique resource for training providers of a range of courses at further and higher education level that prepare people to work with and lead in early years settings in the UK Early Years: Progress in Developing High Quality Childcare and Early Education Accessible to All Committee of Public Accounts, 2004 Research shows that high quality childcare and early education has positive influences on child development and that lack of accessible and affordable childcare can be a barrier to work for parents of young children The Government has increased spending on early years provision and developed the National Childcare Strategy and a number of other initiatives Following on from a National Audit Office report on this topic HCP 268 session 2003 04 ISBN 0102927332 published in February 2004 the Committee s report examines the progress that has been made in increasing the supply of early years provision improving choice for parents and delivering improvements in care standards Findings include that although there has been significant investment and good progress made in increasing the number of childcare places available there are continuing regional gaps in provision particularly in London Early year programmes need to focus on services for deprived children outside recognised disadvantaged areas and more use should be made of school premises to meet unmet demand
