Once Upon A Woman:

A Woman's Book of Rituals and Celebrations Barbara Ardinger, 1995 The Girl Who Drank the Moon Kelly Barnhill, 2016-06-09 SPECIAL PREVIEW Every year the people of the Protectorate leave a baby as an offering to the witch who lives in the forest They hope this sacrifice will keep her from terrorizing their town But the witch in the forest Xan is kind and gentle She shares her home with a wise Swamp Monster named Glerk and a Perfectly Tiny Dragon Fyrian Xan rescues the abandoned children and delivers them to welcoming families on the other side of the forest nourishing the babies with starlight on the journey One year Xan accidentally feeds a baby moonlight instead of starlight filling the ordinary child with extraordinary magic Xan decides she must raise this girl whom she calls Luna as her own When Luna approaches her thirteenth birthday her magic begins to emerge on schedule but Xan is far away Meanwhile a young man from the Protectorate is determined to free his people by killing the witch Soon it is up to Luna to protect those who have protected her even if it means the end of the loving safe world she s always known The acclaimed author of The Witch s Boy has created another epic coming of age fairy tale destined to become a modern classic Teachers Monographs ,1922 The Living Age ,1902 Animal Lessons Kelly Oliver, 2009-10-08 Philosophy reads humanity against animality arguing that man is man because he is separate from beast Deftly challenging this position Kelly Oliver proves that in fact it is the animal that teaches us to be human Through their sex their habits and our perception of their purpose animals show us how not to be them This kinship plays out in a number of ways We sacrifice animals to establish human kinship but without the animal the bonds of brotherhood fall apart Either kinship with animals is possible or kinship with humans is impossible Philosophy holds that humans and animals are distinct but in defending this position the discipline depends on a discourse that relies on the animal for its very definition of the human Through these and other examples Oliver does more than just establish an animal ethics She transforms ethics by showing how its very origin is dependent upon the animal Examining for the first time the treatment of the animal in the work of Heidegger Merleau Ponty Derrida Agamben Freud Lacan and Kristeva among others Animal Lessons argues that the animal bites back thereby reopening the question of the animal for philosophy The British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford, 2018-10-24 The standard work on its subject this resource includes every traceable British entertainment film from the inception of the silent cinema to the present day Now this new edition includes a wholly original second volume devoted to non fiction and documentary film an area in which the British film industry has particularly excelled All entries throughout this third edition have been revised and coverage has been extended through 1994 Together these two volumes provide a unique authoritative source of information for historians archivists librarians and film scholars The Films of Sergio Leone Robert C. Cumbow, 2008-02-15 Sergio Leone s renown as a filmmaker rests upon a fistful of films most notably the three Westerns he made with Clint Eastwood in the mid 1960s A Fistful of Dollars 1964 For a Few Dollars More 1965 and The Good the Bad and the Ugly 1966 While the success of these movies ensured Leone s reputation would endure the few films he made following The Man with No Name Trilogy culminating in his American gangster epic Once Upon a Time in America 1984 with Robert DeNiro would solidify Leone's place as one of the great visionaries of his time. In this enhanced revision of Once upon a Time The Films of Sergio Leone Robert C. Cumbow examines the work of this Italian filmmaker who made his mark re-envisioning the American Western. This volume includes a greatly expanded introduction and contains newly revised essays in which Cumbow analyzes the transition from peplum films to westerns in the Italian popular tradition. The book also examines each of Leone's major films as director as well as the swan song Italian Western My Name Is Nobody which Leone co-wrote and guided as producer. Cumbow also studies Leone's compositional style and the influence of Catholicism and the Italian grand opera tradition on his work. He provides a critical evaluation of Leone's style in reshaping the Western genre and later the crime film as well as an assessment of the influences on Leone's work and his continuing impact on subsequent generations of film makers. Additional features of this book include thumbnail comments on the professionals who most frequently made up Leone's cast and crew as well as an entire chapter devoted to composer Ennio Morricone. The book also includes an exhaustive bibliography, discography and filmography completely updated for this new edition. For fans and scholars seeking original and illuminating discussion of his work The Films of Sergio Leone provides a critical appreciation of this master stylist.

Mobilising Classics Fiona Dukelow, Orla O'Donovan, 2013-01-18. The terms patriarchy, institutional racism, sustainable development and alienation may be familiar but this familiarity is often removed from the analytical contexts in which these ideas emerged. This book provides a series of rich reflections on the interaction between the radical ideas associated with these and other authors and political action in Ireland. The classic texts that comprise the focal point for each chapter were selected by the contributors, many of whom straddle the boundaries of academia and activism. Each essay provides an account of the contributor's personal encounters with the text, opens up the key mobilising ideas and considers how the text has the potential to invigorate the political imagination of contemporary oppositional politics. This book will be of interest to students in the social sciences, especially sociology and Irish studies, and will appeal to those interested or involved in political activism of any variety.
