Peter and Wendy James Matthew Barrie, 2020-12 Mrs Darling screamed and as if in answer to a bell the door opened and Nana entered returned from her evening out She growled and sprang at the boy who leapt lightly through the window Again Mrs Darling screamed this time in distress for him for she thought he was killed and she ran down into the street to look for his little body but it was not there and she looked up and in the black night she could see nothing but what she thought was a shooting star She returned to the nursery and found Nana with something in her mouth which proved to be the boy's shadow As he leapt at the window Nana had closed it quickly too late to catch him but his shadow had not had time to get out slam went the window and snapped it off You may be sure Mrs Darling examined the shadow carefully but it was quite the ordinary kind Nana had no doubt of what was the best thing to do with this shadow She hung it out at the window meaning He is sure to come back for it let us put it where he can get it easily without disturbing the children But unfortunately Mrs Darling could not leave it hanging out at the window it looked so like the washing and lowered the whole tone of the house She thought of showing it to Mr Darling but he was totting up winter greatcoats for John and Michael with a wet towel round his head to keep his brain clear and it seemed a shame to trouble him besides she knew exactly what he would say It all comes of having a dog for a nurse She decided to roll the shadow up and put it away carefully in a drawer until a fitting opportunity came for telling her husband Ah me The opportunity came a week later on that never to be forgotten Friday Of course it was a Friday
