Coming Home? Vol. 1 Sharif Gemie, 2014-07-18 The wars of the twentieth century uprooted people on a previously unimaginable scale to the extent that being a refugee became an increasingly widespread experience With the arrival of refugees governments of host countries had to mediate between divided national populations some wished to welcome those arriving in search of refuge others preferred a strategy of exclusion or even expulsion At the same time refugees had to manage conflicts of the self as they responded to the loss of nationhood families socio-political networks material goods and arguably also a sense of belonging or home While return migration was usually perceived by governments and refugees alike as the best solution to the dilemmas of forced displacement consensus about the timing and dynamics of how this would actually occur was very difficult to achieve In practice the return of refugees to their countries of origin rarely if ever produced a wholly satisfactory outcome Conflicts clearly resulted in forced displacement but it is equally true that forced displacement created conflicts The complex inter-relationship of conflict return migration and the sometimes chimerical but still compelling search for a sense of home is the central preoccupation of the contributors to the two volumes of the Coming Home series Scholars from history literature cultural studies and sociology explore the tensions between nation states and migrants as they have anticipated implemented or challenged the process of return migration during the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book begins with Western Europe and progresses to Central and Eastern Europe from the period of the Spanish Civil War to the Cold War era whilst the second volume Coming home Vol 2 Conflict and Postcolonial Return Migration in the Context of France and North Africa shifts the focus to the colonial and post colonial framework of the French North African nexus What emerges from the two volumes of essays is that as ambiguous and sometimes ambivalent as home could appear it was nonetheless central to migrants preoccupations about returning Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 The Sacred Scriptures - Vol. III Johannes Biermanski,2015-10-12 The objective of the Holy Bible the Sacred Scriptures 27th edition volume III is to revoke all falsifications in today s Bibles known so far the New Testament and to restore the original state of the verses as far as possible In the present work you will find from The Letter to the Hebrews to The General Letter of Judah also The Book of Daniel and The Book of Revelation in which the verses are written in German and English as well as an appendix with various elaborations and statements etc see the table of contents There is both a German and an English edition in which the attachments are available in the respective selected language This is a English version Other important parts of this work are focused on The Doctrine of the Trinity The holy Name of our God The Name of His Son and the Significancy The Falsification of the Resurrection Day The Ttatelements of Dr Martin Luther and the Reformers The official Statements of the Clergy in Rome The full validity of God s Law as well as detailed explanations by the English reformers falsifications in the Holy Bible false doctrines etc The author was born in 1963 in North Rhine Westphalia and completed a traineeship for wholesale and foreign trade in a pharmaceutical wholesale company In the course of his professional development he used to be a freelancer but was also officially employed he has experienced a lot rises and falls throughout his life While studying the Scriptures he was led by the Spirit of the only God the Almighty and the only Holy Father in heaven whereas by grace he could recognize many things that are now presented as heresies to the world In recent years he has been active in the proclamation of the Word of God in Europe particularly in Brazil South America and has enlightened many people by his message so that they get to know the true God His holy name and His will and only obey Him and start to think about all this i e so that they finally decide themselves in favour of the living God instead of against Him and their names are not erased from the divine Book of Life forever Watson's Jeffersonian Magazine ,1907
