richly illustrated volume tells the story of the seven regiments of the Household Division along with the supporting personalities and units of London District A subject as fascinating as it is multifarious From the key personalities responsible for the razor sharp execution of state ceremonial and public duties to the historical figures who helped establish and shape a military dynasty Travel through the history of the Household Division from its birth in 1660 with the restoration of Charles II to its role in establishing Britain's Special Forces It is a journey of political intrigue cementing empire and fighting terrorism From the founding fathers such as George Monck who laid the foundations for a professional British Army to adventurers like David Stirling and Sir Frederick Boy Browning the history of the Household Division is one of almost continuous action and innovation Supported by the honorable Artillery Company and the King's Troop The Royal Horse Artillery London's Ceremonial Regiments put the pomp in circumstance the distinction in battle and the sobriety in the sombre notes of The Last Post

Historical Record of The Queen's Own Gurkha Logistic Regiment, 1958-2018 J. R.

Cawthorne, 2023-01-31 The Gurkha Army Service Corps the predecessor of The Queen's Own Gurkha Logistic Regiment was raised in Singapore in 1958 ten years after the transfer of Gurkha regiments from the Indian Army to the British Army and towards the end of the Malayan Emergency Within four years of being formed it was committed to continuous operations in Brunei and Borneo during Confrontation with Indonesia between 1962-66 It was also redesignated the Gurkha Transport Regiment in 1965 to reflect changes to the Army's logistic structure Between 1966-71 the Regiment was substantially reduced in size along with the rest of The Brigade of Gurkhas as Britain withdrew its forces from East of Suez Concentrated in Hong Kong the Regiment provided transport support to the Garrison for the next 20 years In 1991 a composite squadron was sent to reinforce British Forces in the Gulf War after which in preparation for the handback of Hong Kong to China the Regiment moved to and became permanently stationed in the UK In recognition of its past services it was granted the royal title The Queen's Own Gurkha Transport Regiment in 1992 The following two decades saw it undertake multiple operational tours to the Balkans Iraq Cyprus and Afghanistan as well as providing humanitarian assistance to the Ebola crisis in Sierra Leone It also expanded both its role to incorporate supply and catering and size which led in 2001 to it being redesignated to its current title The Queen's Own Gurkha Logistic Regiment This history records the events and activities of the Regiment during its first 60 years of service to the Crown While of wider interest to military historians it is principally written for members of the Regiment past present and future

Identifying Cap Badges Graham Bandy, 2022-03-18 This book is an invaluable tool of the trade for anyone trying to identify or interpret photos Peter Hart Military Historian Identifying Cap Badges is the book that has been missing from the bookshelves of family historians military enthusiasts and badge collectors alike It is quite easy to find an erudite book on military cap badges but you could spend hours if not days plodding through hundreds of pictures to find a match for the one you hold Sometimes you may not find it at all These learned badge collector's books have one major flaw they are pictured and discussed in order of precedence that is to say from the earliest formed regiments to the latest with separate sections on medical engineers cavalry infantry etc This can be most confusing to those uninitiated into the dark arts of military badges Thus if you do not know the name or original number of your regiment in this order of precedence you can be flummoxed This combined with all the different crowns laurels animals mythological beasts and castles can prove more than a little daunting even to ex soldiers themselves In this book you will find badges ordered by what is on the badge itself be it a dragon sphinx or castle horse lion or tiger This is badge identification in minutes rather than hours with added information on dating badges and many comparison photographs alongside all the pictures of the badges Added to these pictures are short histories of the regiments and family trees plotting the antecedents of today s units

Army Logistician ,2005 The official magazine of United States Army logistics Chambers's encyclopædia Chambers W. and R., ltd,1874 Reports from Commissioners Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1864 The West Yorkshire Regiment in the War 1914-1918 Vol 1 Everard Wyrall,2013-02-25 Another weighty regimental history two volumes 820 pages in all covering the record of twenty two battalions in France Flanders Italy and Gallipoli all of them served on the Western Front When war broke out the regiment consisted of two Regular battalions 1st and 2nd two Special Reserve 3rd and 4th and four Territorial battalions 5th to 8th the 1st Battalion went to France with 6th Division in September 1914 the 2nd Battalion came home from Malta to join the newly formed 8th Division Regular and went to France in November 1914 Both battalions remained in the same brigades 18th and 23rd and divisions throughout the war The four Territorial battalions each formed a 2nd and a 3rd line battalion the four original battalions made up the 146th Brigade 49th West Riding Division arriving in France in April 1915 the second line battalions combined to make the 185th Brigade 62nd 2nd West Riding Division which arrived in France in January 1917 Kitchener s call to arms resulted in eleven Service battalions being raised 9th to 18th the 17th was formed as a Bantam battalion and 21st of these only 13th and 14th did not go on active service The 21st Battalion became a Pioneer battalion in 4th Division and the 22nd was a Labour battalion which also went to France This history records events in chronological order the dates of the operations being described are shown in the margin as are the identities of the battalions involved Volume 1 x 355pp with 18 maps and 15 b w photos covers the period from the outbreak of war to the end of 1916 the close of the Somme offensive and includes the Dardanelles campaign where the 9th Battalion was in action with the 11th Northern Division On 1st July 1916 the first day of the Somme the 10th Battalion attacked at Fricourt and incurred the heaviest casualties of any battalion 710 of whom 307 were killed including the CO 2IC adjutant and two company commanders More than half of them are in in Fricourt New Military Cemetery which is in the No Man s Land across which they attacked and where they died The CO Lt Col Dickson and his adjutant Capt Shann lie side by side There is a Roll of Honour for the period covered in which the other ranks are listed alphabetically by battalions as are the Territorial battalion officers the other officers are shown in one group in alphabetical order with the battalion number in front of the name Although the note at the head of the officer casualty list states that the theatre in which death occurred is France and Flanders unless otherwise indicated nonetheless Gallipoli is not shown against the names of the officers of the 9th Battalion who died there and so one is left with the wrong impression they died on the Western front
