Regional Development And Decentralization Policy In South Korea:

Regional Development and Decentralization Policy in South Korea Ludwig Schätzl, Karin Wessel, Yong-Woo Lee, 1997 This book investigates the interdependent relations between economic development regional development and spatial economic policy in newly industrialized countries using South Korea as a case study The analysis concentrates on three aspects a long term economic restructuring starting with labour intensive production followed by capital intensive and finally human capital and technology intensive production b the effects of the economic transformation process on regional development and c the significance of spatial economic policy for sectoral and regional economic restructuring Growth Pole Strategy and Regional Development Policy Fu-Chen Lo, Kamal Salih, 2013-10-22 Growth Pole Strategy and Regional Development Policy Asian Experience and Alternative Approaches focuses on theoretical and practical issues in regional policy including analytical and strategic approaches to regional development and underdevelopment problems The selection first offers information on Asian case studies in decentralization policy and the growth pole approach including trends in development planning in Japan and the case study of the Mizushima industrial complex Topics include the period of post war reconstruction plan formulation and implementation of Mizushima industrial complex development and interregional dispersion of development of national economy The text also examines the case study of the Ulsan industrial complex in Korea The book looks at decentralization policy growth pole approach and resource frontier development as well as regional structure and uneven economic development in Southeast Asia policy responses toward regional development in Southeast Asia and growth pole approach in Southeast Asia The text also focuses on growth strategies and human settlement in developing countries and growth poles and regional policy in open dualistic economies The selection is a vital reference for readers interested in the theoretical and practical approaches in regional development policy Globalizing Regional Development in East Asia Henry Wai-chung Yeung, 2013-09-13 Significant historical and geographical differences account for the many processes and trajectories of regional development in East Asia These historical and geographical specificities in East Asia have prompted serious re examination of existing theories in regional development and in particular the new regionalism approach associated with such ideas as the learning region institutional thickness relational assets and regional innovation system This book brings together a group of leading researchers specializing in local and regional development in East Asian economies Through in depth empirical studies of specific regions and localities these authors offer fresh and innovative perspectives on how regions evolve and develop over time in the world s most dynamic macro regional economy In particular their work points to the critical importance of local and trans local processes in shaping regional development trajectories The book is timely given that the debate on the nature and dynamics of regional development in both academic and policy circles has now moved on From the earlier focus on endogenous regional assets such as localized networks of association and trust scholars and policymakers are now analyzing the complex relationship between economic globalization and regional change This high calibre collection makes a significant contribution to the literature on local and regional development in Asia and provides an important resource for researchers students and policy makers interested in East Asia This book was published as a special issue of Regional Studies Urban and Regional Policy in Korea and International Experiences Harry Ward Richardson, Myong Chan Hwang, 1987 Ibss: Political Science: 1997 British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1999-01-14 Provides an unrivalled overview of intellectual development in political science Global Challenges and Local Responses Jang-Sup Shin, 2007-08-07 East Asia has in many ways been the cockpit of the globalization process If the phenomenon as it is generally defined is largely recognized as a relatively recent one the countries that have experienced most change during this period have been in the region Rapid economic growth leading to the Tigers label was followed by financial crisis and partial recovery Underlying this has been the remarkable success story of Japan since the Second World War followed by the current seemingly inexorable progress of China towards centrality on the world stage Jang Sup Shin has amassed an international team of contributors to shed light on how the various Asian countries have responded to the globalization process These include James Crotty Lu Ding and Ha Joon Chang

Exporting Urban Korea? Se Hoon Park, Hyun Bang Shin, Hyun Soo Kang, 2020-12-23 A detailed examination of the Korean development model from its urban dimension evaluating its sociopolitical contexts and implications for international development cooperation There is an increasing tendency to use the development experience of Asian countries as a reference point for other countries in the Global South Korea s condensed urbanization and industrialization accompanied by the expansion of new cities and industrial complexes across the country have become one such model even if the fruits of such development may not have been equitably shared across geographies and generations The chapters in this book critically reassess the Korean urban development experience from regional policy to new town development demonstrating how these policy experiences were deeply rooted in Korea s socioeconomic environment and discussing what can be learned from them when applying them in other developmental contexts This book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in the field of urban studies and developmental studies in general and in Korea s urban development experience in particular Chapters 1 2 4 and 12 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
