Regions of Memory William Stanley Merwin, Ed Folsom, 1987 Zoopoetics Aaron M. Moe, 2013-12-19 Zoopoetics assumes Aristotle was right The general origin of poetry resides in part in the instinct to imitate But it is an innovative imitation An exploration of the oeuvres of Walt Whitman E E Cummings W S Merwin and Brenda Hillman reveals the many places where an imitation of another species poiesis Greek makings contributes to breakthroughs in poetic form However humans are not the only imitators in the animal kingdom Other species too achieve breakthroughs in their makings through an attentiveness to the ways of being of other animals For this reason mimic octopi elephants beluga whales and many other species join the exploration of what zoopoetics encompasses Zoopoetics provides further traction for people interested in the possibilities when and where species meet Gestures are paramount to zoopoetics Through the interplay of gestures the human animal textual spheres merge making it possible to recognize how actual biological animals impact the material makings of poetry Moreover as many species are makers zoopoetics expands the poetic tradition to include nonhuman poiesis

Lisa Siraganian demonstrates has often been misunderstood in critical studies of modernism Connecting poetry to the visual arts and politics the author provides new ways to think about modernist art s relationship Ecocriticism and the Poiesis of Form Aaron M. Moe,2019-02-14 Ecocriticism and the Poiesis of Form Holding on to Proteus demonstrates how a fractal imagination helps one hold the form of a poem within the reaches of Deep Time and it explores the kinship between the hazy liminal moment when Sound becomes Syllable and the hazy liminal moment when the sage energy of the Atom made a leap toward the gaze of the first cell to echo Merwin Moe distills his methodology as follows My work I point asserted the aphorism That s what I do To point the project integrates a wide range of interdisciplinary ideas including biosemiotics fractals phi trauma theory the Mandelbrot Set hyperobjects meditative chants Goethe s morphology Ramanujan s summation a spiderweb s sonic properties and Thoreau s sense of the plant like burgeoning force of an Atom in order to open up multiple trajectories In this context the volume foregrounds the insights of poets storytellers including Hillman Snyder Anzald a EEC okpik Whitman Dickinson Gladding Melville Morrison and Toomer for they are most attentive to that liminal moment when the vibratory hum in language and in the cosmos turns kinetic As this volume draws on a wide range of writers from many backgrounds it allows the myriad voices to engage with one another across differences in race gender and ethnicity These writers show us how to echo Dickinson the Freight Of a delivered Syllable can split and how the energy unleashed came from and points us back toward the energy un making the forms of Gaia The starting point for discussing the energy of a poem can no longer begin with the human rather Holding on explores how the poem s energy is but a sliver of a hyperobject massively distributed throughout the cosmos a sage energy that brings forth form From Origin to Ecology Jane Frazier,1999 Frazier examines Merwin s poetry with regard to ecocriticism anthropology Merwin s fellow poets Merwin criticism and his own essays and interviews Of central importance is Merwin s indebtedness to Henry David Thoreau his sense that Thoreau guided American writing in a new direction whereby nature could be seen as something of value for itself BOOK JACKET This Is My Body Thomas J. Davis,2008-08-01 There are many general surveys of the Reformation available and they all typically devote some space to how theologians such as Martin Luther and John Calvin understood the Lord s Supper and Christ s presence in the bread and wine However they usually do not provide a great deal of detail about the development of the Reformers thoughts or the finer elements of their respective opinions This volume by Thomas Davis fills these gaps with a more narrowly focused study He devotes several chapters to Luther and to Calvin examining their use of language and their understanding of the presence of Christ both in the Lord s Supper and in the broader sense of his presence in the church A Companion to American Poetry Mary McAleer Balkun,Jeffrey Gray,Paul Jaussen,2022-04-11 A COMPANION TO AMERICAN POETRY A Companion to American Poetry brings together original essays by both established scholars and emerging critical voices to explore the latest topics and debates in American poetry and its study Highlighting the diverse nature of poetic practice and scholarship this comprehensive volume addresses a broad range of individual poets movements

Scott Bryson, 2005-04-01

In contrast to nature poets of the past who tended more toward the bucolic and pastoral many contemporary nature poets are taking up radical environmental and ecological themes In the last few years interesting and evocative work that examines this poetry has begun to lay the foundation for studies in ecopoetics Informed in general by current thinking in environmental theory and specifically by the work of cultural geographer Yi Fu Tuan The West Side of Any Mountain participates in and furthers this scholarly attention by offering an overarching theoretical framework with which to approach the field One area that contemporary theorists have found problematic is the dualistic civilization wilderness binary that focuses on the divisions between culture and nature thereby increasing the modern sense of alienation Tuan's place space framework offers a succinct vocabulary for describing the attitudes of ecological poets and other nature writers in a way that avoids setting up an adversarial relationship between place and space Scott Bryson describes the Tuanian framework and employs it to offer fresh readings of the work of four major ecopoets Wendell Berry Joy Harjo Mary Oliver and W S Merwin The West Side of Any Mountain will be of great interest to scholars and teachers working in the field of contemporary nature poetry It is recommended for nature writing courses as well as classes dealing with 20th century poetry contemporary literary criticism and environmental theory
