Of Little Comfort Erika Kuhlman, 2012-03-19 Erika Kuhlman focusses on the war and postwar experiences of people based on letters diaries magazine articles and correspondences between widows and their governments The author offers a comparison between a victorious and a defeated nation the United States and Germany Androids Chet Haase, 2022-07-19 The fascinating inside story of how the Android operating system came to be In 2004 Android was two people who wanted to build camera software but couldn't get investors interested Today Android is a large team at Google delivering an operating system including camera software to over 3 billion devices worldwide This is the inside story told by the people who made it happen Androids The Team that Built the Android Operating System is a first hand chronological account of how the startup began how the team came together and how they all built an operating system from the kernel level to its applications and everything in between It describes the tenuous beginnings of this ambitious project as a tiny startup then as a small acquisition by Google that took on an industry with strong entrenched competition Author Chet Haase joined the Android team at Google in May 2010 and later recorded conversations with team members to preserve the early days of Android's history leading to the launch of 1.0 This engaging and accessible book captures the developers' stories in their own voices to answer the question How did Android succeed Uncensored Poland News Bulletin, 1986 Fully Hexed Steve Bridges, 2020-07-21 If you believe that human history is linear then you should also accept that the world is flat Stanley Brooker is an amateur archaeologist perplexed by the lack of evidence for any form of permanent civilisation ever having been established on the Australian continent prior to the arrival of Captain Cook It just didn't make sense and was in contradiction to the development of human society in every other inhabited region Deciding to delve a bit deeper accompanied by his long suffering wife Mel he embarks on an investigative journey disguised as a long overdue holiday trip into the desert country of South Australia A series of accidental circumstances and natural disasters brings them face to face with the possible future of humanity presented in the form of an ancient vessel built by humans currently inhabited by a life form born of Earth but not a life form as they understand the term Mastering the Art of Failure 100+ Proven Ways to Waste Time, Destroy Dreams, and Ruin Your Life Like a True Champion DR MDUSMAN CMgr, DBA, PhD LLM, MBA, MSc EMBA, ITC, FDA/BA(Hons) PgDPR PgDHE. Level-SLM 7&8. Level 7 ELM, 2025-06-22 Mastering the Art of Failure 100 Proven Ways to Waste Time Destroy Dreams and Ruin Your Life Like a True Champion The Ultimate Anti Success Guide for the Lazy Unmotivated and Proudly Unproductive How to Become a Legend of Laziness 100 Habits to Guarantee a Life of Regret Waste and Failure Refusals in instructional contexts and beyond Otilia Martí-Arnándiz, Patricia Salazar-Campillo, 2013-08-01 Little exposure and few opportunities for practice are two main drawbacks for learners in instructional contexts These problems are intensified when dealing with face threatening acts such as refusals as learners are not fully capable of expressing their meanings and miscommunication is a likely by product The present volume aims at exploring factors and production of refusals in different instructional settings by means of ten original papers which address key questions dealing with the speech act of refusals The relevance of the volume lies in the individual contributions which embrace innovative perspectives on refusals in order to provide an excellent contribution to this field of enquiry The book is an obligatory reading for researchers and students interested in the field of interlanguage pragmatics who will benefit from the range of educational contexts in which refusals are investigated

Libraries Driving Access to Knowledge Jesús Lau,Anna Maria Tamaro,Theo J. D. Bothma,2012-08-31 This book is a must for librarians with international interest in access to knowledge It includes a collection of 15 chapters written by authors from all over the world and covers different approaches to the vital role of libraries driving access to knowledge There are chapters that offer solutions and ideas to enable libraries to become the knowledge engine in society Other chapters discuss the conceptual part of the subject and related services The book was compiled as part of the presidential theme of Ellen Tise IFLA President 2009 2011 with the aim of offering the reader a good portrait of the opportunities and challenges that libraries have in driving access to knowledge

Late Modern English Syntax Marianne Hundt,2014-08-14 The Late Modern period is the first in the history of English for which an unprecedented wealth of textual material exists Using increasingly sophisticated databases the contributions in this volume explore grammatical usage from the period specifically morphological and syntactic change in a broad context Some chapters explore the socio historical background of the period while others provide information on prescriptivism newspaper language language contact and regional variation in British and American English Internal processes of change are discussed against grammaticalisation theory and construction grammar and the rich body of textual evidence is used to draw inferences on the precise nature of historical change Exposing readers to a wealth of data that informs the description of a broad range of syntactic phenomena this book is ideal for graduate students and researchers interested in historical linguistics corpus linguistics and language development

NEXT Sci-Fi Series: Arctic Chronicles Sun Wanglu, That is a story from the Arctic past where we were inspired by love and learned how humans can coexist During the future war in an underground research facility at an Arctic research station the ancestors of viruses and bacteria macromolecular substances were discovered deep in the Arctic However Liu Ming who was instructed by his superiors to research biochemical weapons felt conflicted Confronted with his father s past and his own moral struggles he found himself deeply confused until everything was brought to light

Mobile Persuasion Design Aaron Marcus,2015-11-03 Mobile Persuasion Design presents ten conceptual design projects or Machines for new mobile application s smartphone or tablet with Web portals that combine theories of persuasion and information design to change people s behaviour Areas such as the environment health learning and happiness are explored looking at ways of marrying people s wants and needs to make simple usable and desirable mobile applications A user centred design approach has been used adopting user experience UX methods in depth case studies and market analysis to see what a modern user needs from their mobile application By applying concepts like persuasion theory and information architecture try to find ways to satisfy these needs and positively change their user habits In 2011 the Green Health and Money Machines won design awards in an international competition hosted by the International Institute for Information Design Vienna THE GUIDE Serhii Yakovenko,2023-05-07 In the house of an elderly dying from sarcoma oligarch Silin an unusual guest arrives He introduces himself as a professor of neurobiology and offers to transplant the old man s consciousness into a young clone However there is a catch during the transplantation donors experience monstrous hellish pain that no one can endure No one except for the conduit a free human consciousness that once lost its own body To make everything work the conduit s consciousness will have to be implanted into Silin s brain

Love and Other Technologies Dominic Pettman,2006 Can love really be considered another form of technology Dominic Pettman says it can although not before carefully redefining technology as a cultural challenge to what we mean by the human in the information age Using the writings of such important thinkers as Giorgio Agamben Jean Luc Nancy and Bernard Stiegler as a springboard Pettman explores the techtonic movements of contemporary culture specifically in relation to the language of eros Highly ritualized expressions of desire love in other words always reveal an era s attitude toward what it means to exist as a self among others For Pettman the articulation of love is a technique of belonging a way of responding to the basic plurality of everyone s identity a process that becomes increasingly complex as the forms of mediated communication from cell phone and text messaging to the mass media multiply and mesh together Wrestling the idea of love from the arthritic hands of Romanticism Pettman demonstrates the ways in which this dynamic assemblage the stirrings of the soul have always been a matter of tools devices prosthetics and media Love is after all something we make And love this book argues is not eternal but external Action and Agency in Dialogue François Cooren,2010 Elegantly written and compellingly argued Cooren offers up some of the most original theorizing on agency in the communication sciences that we have seen to date Nonhuman agency does not just make a difference in this book It is a difference that connects communicates and brings to life the impossible Gail T Fairhurst Professor University of Cincinnati USA Human Rights

Protection Frances Butler,2021-12-28 All institutions have human rights responsibilities Some have been set up with this function and others have had human rights principles thrust upon them This book explores how different institutions from state entities national human rights commissions and the judiciary to the United Nations agencies and international courts have engaged in human rights protection There is analysis of their evolution in this role and the methods that they use Northern Ireland and Bosnia Herzegovina are illustrative of what can happen to human rights when societies are in conflict Other chapters consider the development of international criminal law the trouble with treaties and the increasing pressure on corporations to demonstrate social responsibility There is plenty of evidence that human rights protection is as important as ever and this book looks at what is required to achieve this effectively The British Institute of Human Rights aims to further the protection of human rights through education and research It is a charity based at King s College London
