Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 ReInvention Mark Whittall,2016-01-12 In these days of declining membership in mainline congregations a new church plant is a rarity Even more so perhaps when the church plant involves an existing 145 year old building and a focus on ministry to college and university students young adults living in the neighbourhood and those experiencing homelessness and dealing with poverty In ReInvention Stories from an Urban Church Mark Whittall shares the insights and wisdom he and a small but dedicated team gained as they worked to establish a new congregation in St Albans Church the second oldest Anglican parish in Ottawa The challenges the team faced were not small the renovation of the original building negative reaction from the community to the placement of a day program for the homeless creating new liturgies and a new kind of church experience and learning how best to reach out to and involve people with little or no prior church involvement The result of all these efforts however has been the transformation of St Albans into a vibrant centre for worship a beautiful venue for the arts and place of shelter and safety for many of the city s most vulnerable inhabitants Descartes Reinvented Tom Sorell,2005-07-11 In this study Tom Sorell seeks to rehabilitate views that are often instantly dismissed in analytic philosophy His book serves as a reinterpretation of Cartesianism and responds directly to the dislike of Descartes in contemporary philosophy To identify what is defensible in Cartesianism Sorell starts with a picture of unreconstructed Cartesianism which is characterized as realistic antisceptical but respectful of scepticism rationalist centered on the first person dualist and dubious of the comprehensiveness of natural science and its supposed independence of metaphysics Bridging the gap between history of philosophy and analytic philosophy Sorell also shows for the first time how some contemporary analytic philosophy is deeply Cartesian despite its outward hostility to Cartesianism
