McDonald,2004-12-01 The world knows of the horrors Hitler unleashed upon an entire race of people but what of the countless other lives torn apart This is the story of one such innocent a young Austrian boy who struggles to find meaning and hope amidst the chaos and horror of World War II The calm of Alfie s childhood in the heart of Sudetenland is surrounded and eventually destroyed as Hitler s greed consumes all of Europe Left behind by his fleeing family Alfie is separated from all he holds dear He sets out on a journey of survival and discovery as agonizing loneliness witnessed brutalities and numbing hunger all determine to break Alfie s faith in those around him Alfie must navigate the many minefields real and psychological that lurk before him in his uncertain future and behind him in his troubled past Even upon Alfie s eventual escape to America the very idea of family is thrown into question as long buried secrets are revealed Throughout this story of love and loyalty war and renewal betrayal and trust Alfie finds that the most difficult road he faces is the beleaguered path of his own memories The Tiny Museums Carolyn Abbs,2017 Highly Commended in the 2016 Dorothy Hewett Award for an Unpublished Manuscript Carolyn Abbs s poems in her poised collection The Tiny Museums live in the gap between deep time and now They are insistently alive to the rich tensions between those two registers This pairing of past present plays out in other unifying doublings and mirrorings particularly those between the UK and Western Australia between photography and poetry and a fertile creative relationship shared by sisters Abbs deftly creates the world of her book through a phenomenological approach Elegant layers of textures colours sounds and movement invite the reader into an experiential sense of this trench between the past and the present In this way her sensibility is painterly but its a Northern light in her poems reminiscent of the crisp mysteries of Vermeer Abbs s poems dealing with family grief are the centrepieces of the book and are admirable in their ability to move the reader without any cloying sentimentality Along with a skilled attentiveness to the ways in which sound moves through a line this beautifully modulated emotional intelligence is a very great strength of her poetry The 2016 Dorothy Hewett Award judges report Series UWAP Poetry Subject Poetry
