Queer (Un)Friendly Film and Television James R. Keller, 2010-06-28 In the past representations of alternative lifestyles on film were even in their most explicit forms faint and ambiguous and the television industry was even more conservative But in more recent years thanks in part to the success of such films as Philadelphia The Birdcage To Wong Fu and In Out and television programs such as Will Grace a collective effort is underway to construct a positive new public image for gays and lesbians This work studies recent cinematic and television depictions of gays and lesbians It examines the gay male conversion fantasy in Get Real Beautiful Thing I Think I Do and Billy s Hollywood Screen Kiss the metaphor of the aging artist as a teacher to young gay men in Love and Death on Long Island and Gods and Monsters gay violence in Shakespeare and The Talented Mr Ripley unacknowledged homophobia and theories of traditional masculinity in Gladiator the ethical complexities of the human genome project and genetic screening for the gene associated with homosexuality in Twilight of the Gods profanity and protest masculinity in The Usual Suspects the controversy arising when the cast of Will Grace urged Californians to vote against the Knight Initiative refusing recognition to same sex marriages male egotism in Flawless gay parenting and other family issues in The Birdcage The Object of My Affection and The Next Best Thing and rehabilitating homophobia in American Beauty Urbania Oz Kiss Me Guido Chuck Buck and Billy Elliot

Animaladies Lori Gruen, Fiona Probyn-Rapsey, 2018-11-29 Do depictions of crazy cat ladies obscure more sinister structural violence against animals hoarded in factory farms Highlighting the frequent pathologization of animal lovers and animal rights activists this book examines how the madness of our relationships with animals intersects with the madness of taking animals seriously The essays collected in this volume argue that animaladies are expressive of political and psychological discontent and the characterization of animal advocacy as mad or crazy distracts attention from broader social unease regarding human exploitation of animal life While allusions to madness are both subtle and overt they are also very often gendered thought to be overly sentimental with an added sense that emotions are being directed at the wrong species Animaladies are obstacles for the political uptake of interest in animal issues as the intersections between this volume and established feminist scholarship show the fear of being labeled unreasonable or mad still has political currency

The Rational Inquirer Michele Palmira, 2025-06-13 The Rational Inquirer offers an original account of the rational response to peer disagreement in terms of a duty to double check one s initial conclusions and a permission to retain an inquiry directing attitude of hypothesis toward those conclusions This allows for a vindication of the competing rational pressures to revise and retain one s original views that give rise to the distinctive puzzle of peer disagreement Michele Palmira conceives of peer disagreement as higher order evidence that generates a genuine epistemic duty to double check one s initial conclusions His inquiry theoretic approach contrasts with existing approaches that characterise the rational response to higher order evidence in terms of doxastic duties to revise or retain one s beliefs He develops a pluralist view of the aims of inquiry offers a definition of double checking and defends the genuine epistemic nature of the duty to double check Palmira shows that while the duty to double check is incompatible with rational belief retention it is compatible with the retention of an attitude of hypothesis whereby two peers retain their cognitive leanings toward conflicting answers to the question at hand He also contends that hypothesis is a sui generis doxastic attitude that does not reduce to suspended judgement or credences develops a non evidentialist and consequentialist view of the central epistemic norm governing rational hypothesis and argues that the account on offer compares favourably with recent views that also appeal to doxastic attitudes other than belief and suspended judgement

Humanism in a Non-Humanist World Monica R. Miller, 2017-09-14 This book brings together a diverse and wide ranging group of thinkers to forge unsuspecting conversations across the humanist and non humanist divide How should humanism relate to a non humanist world What distinguishes humanism from the non humanist Readers will encounter a wide range of perspectives on the terms bringing together this volume where Humanism Non Humanist and World are not taken for granted but instead tackled from a wide variety of perspectives spaces discourses and approaches This volume offers both a pragmatic and scholarly account of these terms and worldviews allowing for multiple points of analytical and practical points of entry into the unfolding dialogue between humanism and the non humanist world In this way this volume is attentive to both theoretically and historically grounded inquiry and applied practical application Chasing the Light Joel

Zarley, 2010-07-27 It is a mystery that has existed since the dawn of time The remnants of primordial light compressed into a solitary gem and expelled with man from paradise as punishment for the original sin It has been possessed by some of the greatest men throughout history all of whom have reveled in its power But that is only part of its story The past five years have been rough for Gabriel Patrick recently fired from his academic position at the university and still reeling at being dumped by the true love of his life And dumped not just for any other man but Gabe s personal and professional mentor the renowned art historian Dr Rudolph Zeffner But now Rudy has been murdered and his ex Kevin has shown up unexpectedly bringing with him a story too outlandish to believe But what seems so impossible at first reveals itself through a series of clues left by Rudy that Gabe and Kevin must now follow Soon they are consumed by a Transatlantic quest for one of mankind s greatest treasures But other factions are also seeking this incredible object and have already proven that they will kill to possess it Can Gabe and Kevin find the relic and fulfill the final wishes of the man they both loved or will they fall to his same fate The Melancholy of Race Anne Anlin Cheng, 2001 Cheng proposes that racial identification is itself already a melancholic act a social category that is imaginatively supported through a dynamic of loss and compensation by which the racial other is at once rejected and retained Using psychoanalytic theories on mourning and melancholia as inroads into her subject Cheng offers a closely observed and carefully reasoned account of the minority experience as expressed in works of art by and about Asian Americans and African Americans She argues that the racial minority and dominant American culture both suffer from racial melancholia and that this insight is crucial to a productive reimagining of progressive politics
