painstaking fieldwork examining the significance of black and white striping and after systematically dismissing every hypothesis for these markings with new data he arrives at a surprising conclusion zebra markings are nature's defense against biting fly annoyance Popular explanations for stripes range from camouflage to confusion of predators social facilitation and even temperature regulation It is a serious challenge to test these proposals on large animals living in the wild but using a combination of careful observations simple field experiments comparative information and logic Caro is able to weigh up the pros and cons of each idea Eventually driven by experiments showing that biting flies avoid landing on striped surfaces observations that striping is most intense where biting flies are abundant and knowledge of zebras susceptibility to biting flies and vulnerability to the diseases that flies carry Caro concludes that black and white stripes are an adaptation to thwart biting fly attack Not just a tale of one scientist's quest to solve a classic mystery of biology Zebra Stripes is also a testament to the tremendous value of longitudinal research in behavioral ecology demonstrating how observation experiment and comparative research can together reshape our understanding of the natural world Zink Cherie Bennett, 1998 Zink is about true courage in the face of unpredictable predators In an age where too many are quick to confront fears and differences with senseless violence Zink exemplifies the importance of tolerance and acceptance Imaginative funny and heartbreaking this allegory features a pre-teen girl with leukemia and a herd of talking African zebras whom she meets when she is diagnosed with her life-threatening illness The zebras include street-smart Ice Z grandfatherly Papa Zeke and pompous Zilch along with Shlep a furry green monkey who's certain he's also a zebra The zebras recount to her their legend of Zink a mythical polka-dotted zebra once an outcast but later a hero As Becky's condition worsens and she is mistreated by some classmates she zaps back and forth between real life and the zebra world until the shattering breathtaking and uplifting climax Publisher's description
