Runner Mack Howard University Press Library Of Contemporary Literature:

Runner Mack Barry Beckham, 1983 Library Journal, 1984 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Uniform Trade List Annual, 1977 Black Book Publishers in the United States Donald Franklin Joyce, 1991-10-14 Since the second decade of the nineteenth century there have been black owned book publishers in the United States addressing the special concerns of black people in ways that other book publishers have not This is the first work to treat extensively the individual publishing histories of these firms Though largely ignored by historians the story of these publishers as documented in this study reveals fascinating details of literary history as well as previously unknown facts about the contribution of blacks to Western civilization Donald Franklin Joyce offers comprehensive profiles of forty six publishing companies selected for inclusion through an examination of major bibliographic works book advertisements periodical literature and business directories Each profile contains information on the company s publishing history books and other publications that were released information sources about the firm other titles issued libraries holding titles produced by the publisher and officers and addresses where appropriate Entries are arranged alphabetically by the publisher name while an appendix presents a geographic listing of the firms and an index offers author title and subject access This work will be an important resource for students scholars and researchers interested in cultural and intellectual black history as well as public and academic libraries seeking specific information on individual publishing companies The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: D-H Hans A. Ostrom, J. David Macey, 2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher The Crisis, 1984-04 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 Les auteurs afro-américains, 1965-1987 Bibliothèque nationale (France). imprimés, Andrée Paolantonacci, Bibliothèque nationale (France). Département des entrées étrangères, 1989 Cyclopedia of World Authors II Frank Northen Magill, 1989 American Book Publishing Record , 1984-04 The Baseball Bibliography Myron J. Smith, 2006 With over 57 000 entries this two volume set is the most comprehensive non electronic non database print bibliography on any American sport Represented here are books and monographs scholarly papers government documents doctoral dissertations masters theses poetry and fiction novels pro team yearbooks college and professional All Star Game and World Series programs commercially produced yearbooks and periodical and journal articles Provided by publisher Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 1985 GI Diary David Parks, 1984 David Parks is a black man from an affluent family After dropping out of college he is drafted into the U S Army in 1965 He goes because he feels it is his duty to serve His father tells him to make the best of it What he finds is racism in the U S Army Not only do the officers send him on guard and KP duty more times than the others but once in Nam they send him on more dangerous duties He finds the Army divided between Souls white men and Hispanics Not only does this prevent the units from fighting more effectively but it causes a hatred toward his fellow soldiers rather than the enemy He finally gets out and heads home to a divided land I think this book points out a unique perspective America was divided in the sixties and blacks and others did not have equal rights However our nation put them at risk in foreign lands to back up our foreign policy This is a good perspective of the black soldier in Vietnam If We Must Die Junius Edwards, 1985

American Bookseller , 1984 Coming Home George Davis, 1984 The novel captures the physical and psychological landscape of the war zone and home front during the Vietnam War The novel was written at the end of a decade when much of the world was breaking free and this includes African Americans who populate the universe that the novel creates In almost equal number white Americans populate that universe also and the dangers of combat ties both groups together in camaraderie and antagonism so complex that neither can express the simplest human feelings without reference to the other Google books viewed Oct 1 2020 Crisis William Edward Burghardt Du Bois, 1984 A record of the darker races The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1985 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2000 S.S.S.L.
