Dennis Sutherland,2015-03-11 One night a few years after the tragic death of his fianc e David Knight has a dream or is it a dream In it his dead girlfriend shows him a diagram of a time machine that he instinctively knows will work Working in secret he builds the machine and tests it several times only to find that some 1 000 years in the future humanity has ceased to exist As he works his way back towards the present he sees scenes of death and destruction that horrify him Knowing that he may be the only human alive who can intervene to save humanity David travels into the past to discover the origins of Christianity and examine the millennia of religion based conflicts that have plagued human history In his research in the past he is shocked to learn there was no historical Jesus as described in the Gospels of Matthew Mark Luke and John As he gets to know the four writers he learns that Mark is leading a movement to help unify the Jewish people who are under the tyrannical rule of the Romans Mark and his brethren are trying to help people see that there can be new life rebirth and draws his character of Jesus as a human sent from God to save His people In helping them with their work David sees a way to reveal the manuscript to his own time and if modern scientific research can confirm its finding then the future of the human race has a chance of survival Returning to his real time he puts in motion a series of events that he hopes will turn humanity away from the brink of extinction
