Economic and Social Cohesion in Europe Achille Hannequart, 1992-10-01 With discussions of a full internal market within the EC finally reaching fruition and regular intergovernmental talks advancing the ideas of economic monetary and perhaps eventually political union economic and social cohesion has become a major objective of Community policy Regional disparities remain a hard fact of Community life Although th

Negotiated Governance and Public Policy in Ireland George Taylor, 2005-08-06 Over the past ten years the Irish polity has experienced profound change The pessimism that had engulfed Irish society during the 1980s has given way to a new found confidence one that befits its status as an emerging confident and cosmopolitan European state This book provides a theoretical examination of this startling turnaround in Ireland and details the developments that have taken place in key areas of public policy over the last decade civil service reform the welfare state environmental policy and rural development

Housing Contemporary Ireland Michelle Norris, Declan Redmond, 2007-03-11 This book the first comprehensive accessible review of housing in Ireland for many years introduces key housing developments and also reports on the findings of the latest research on the transformation of the sector in the past decade Topics include the impact of the house price boom on wealth and affordability the urban renewal schemes and private rented housing the management of social housing the accommodation of Travellers and homeless people rural housing policy and politics During the past decade Ireland s economic growth has attracted international attention This book analyses the consequences of that growth on housing and serves as a primer to other countries on the complexities of delivering sustainable housing solutions in the face of economic success As such this book will be of interest to students practitioners and policy makers involved in the housing field worldwide and to anyone who wishes to learn more about the causes and effects of Ireland s recent housing boom

Combat Poverty Agency Submission to the Department of Agriculture on Rural Development (1990) , Anthropology of Policy Cris Shore,Susan Wright,2003-12-16 Arguing that policy has become an increasingly central concept and instrument in the organisation of contemporary societies and that it now impinges on all areas of life so that it is virtually impossible to ignore or escape its influence this book argues that the study of policy leads straight into issues at the heart of anthropology

Renegotiating Rural Development in Ireland John McDonagh,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002 As rural Ireland undergoes deep reaching changes this book critically assesses what the author terms the renegotiation of rural development in Ireland through the repackaging reproduction and representation of suggestions ideas and alternatives for rural renewal Deconstructing the process and practice of rural development in Ireland the author explores the new approaches to development and the so called desire for creating integrative policy and planning approaches The main conduits for this investigation are those of partnership and community groups and their involvement in rural development issues Further through investigation of the relevant concepts and theories of rural change the volume delves into the discourses of rurality and development and utilizes the diversity of approaches and understanding of this increasingly complex issue

The Bounded Field Jaro Stacul,2018-01-15 Regionalism is one of the most debated issues in contemporary western Europe Yet why the region rather than the nation state can have such a strong appeal for the construction of social and political identity remains largely unexplored Drawing on data collected in the mountainous Trentino region of northern Italy the author investigates how ideas about village boundaries and private property form the background against which regionalist ideologies are understood In suggesting that ideas about regionalism largely reflect views about private property he provides an alternative to theories of nationalism that overlook the articulation between official ideologies and discourses at the local level

The Politics of Territory B. Murtagh,2001-12-03 This book explores the relationship between land use planning and ethno religious segregation It draws on a range of empirical research and case studies to explore the meaning attached to land in contested places the challenges these present to planners and the possibilities for accommodating differences over the use and development of territory The author argues that planners have a significant role in the management of these processes and sets out some ideas about how this might be addressed in local and global settings including the Balkans and Palestine

Anti-Capital: Human, Social and Cultural Jacek Tittenbrun,2016-04-15 The notion of capital has enjoyed a rich career in the social sciences its use across a range of subjects and in diverse academic and professional contexts having served to establish its conceptual status as given With particular attention to human and social capital including cultural capital this book traces the roots of this theoretical and conceptual trend to economics revealing the proliferation of various forms of capital to be based upon an encroachment of the conceptual apparatus of economics into other social sciences Offering an in depth critical analysis of the concepts of human and social capital as well as their surrounding theories Anti Capital Human Social and Cultural proposes an alternative theoretical framework whilst better explaining the realities that they mask in economic terms A rigorous exploration of the most popular forms of capital in the contemporary social sciences this book will be of interest to scholars and students of sociology political and social theory demography and economics      Poverty Today: Index to Issues 01-27 (December 1987-April 1995) ,      An Enlarged Europe Louis Albrechts,Sally Hardy,Mark Hart,Anastasios Katos,2013-12-19 The political and economic geography of Europe is changing the European Community is expanding its boundaries towards EFTA and is resuming a closer association with Central and Eastern European regions engaged in radical restructuring As EC integration accelerates there is the prospect of intensified inter regional competition This book divided into five parts examines in detail the changes and the challenge for policy makers The introduction draws out the central themes of the book addressing EC regional performance and future indicators the enlargement and changing map of Europe and the implications for the EC of Eastern European changes The second part deals with EC issues particularly focusing on the economic and spatial impact of European integration Part 3 addresses Eastern European issues and Part 4 covers the Peripheral Regions The final part is devoted to a policy debate concluding with a policy agenda for the forthcoming decade

Rural Regeneration in the UK Simon Pemberton,2019-04-26 Rural Regeneration in the UK provides an accessible yet critical overview of rural regeneration policy and governance in the UK It charts the key patterns and processes of rural change since 1945 and the emergence and evolution of rural regeneration policy and governance in shaping rural spaces A key objective of the book is to highlight how and to what extent rural regeneration policy and governance are responsive to an increasingly differentiated and uneven rural economy and society Part One considers the context for rural regeneration including theoretical frameworks of relevance and the ways in which rural regeneration policy and governance have been framed In particular it includes a consideration of how the rural has been made thinkable and the extent to which this has moved beyond traditional concerns with agricultural development Part Two highlights the key dimensions and spaces of rural regeneration This includes responses to rural change from within the rural including community led approaches the use of culture and the extent to which approaches may be converging or diverging within a devolved UK Rural Regeneration in the UK provides a comprehensive and integrated analysis of responses to rural change that will appeal to a broad audience of students scholars and practitioners both in the UK and abroad      Speeches by Members of the European Union: 1
