Rural Development Learning From China

John G. Gurley

Rural Development Learning From China:

Rural Development Sartaj Aziz, 1978 Monograph on the experience and theoretical framework of rural development in China with regard to its relevance for other developing countries covers historical background agricultural policy innovations and agricultural mechanization land ownership rural cooperative development social changes in rural communities agricultural income etc and includes statistical tables on arable land in the world and some other experiments in rural development incl Tanzania Bulgaria Japan Israel and India Illustrations and references Rural Development : Learning from China, 1980 Coordinating Urban and Rural Development in China, 2013 Coordinating Urban and Rural Development in China Ye Yumin, Richard LeGates, 2013-09-30 The focus of published narrative on the great Chinese urbanization wave was always going to sharpen _ away from the general fascination assertions theories and commentaries to specific issues and specific regions Well here is a first class example China's Road to Development N. Maxwell, 2014-06-28 China's Road to Development is a collection of papers by specialists on aspects of China's economy and society It covers a wide range of subjects from development strategy to the specifics of small scale energy exploitation from the role of women in China's development to the greening of China through great efforts in afforestation Commenting on the limited issue original edition a special issue of the journal World Development from which this volume has been greatly expanded Dr Knowles President of the Rockefeller Foundation wrote A magnificent collection of essays by very astute and experienced observers covering everything from population control health economic planning trade city planning and rural development to Chinese aid in building the Tanzania Zambia railway If I could only afford two books on modern China I would get this one China, Agriculture in Transition Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1981-01-01 FAO pub Mission report on agricultural planning and agricultural policies in China covers land utilization irrigation crop yield potential agricultural mechanization agricultural employment grain imports resource allocation financing and income distribution reports on agricultural price agricultural taxes consumption subsidies agricultural credit agricultural cooperatives etc discusses agricultural education agricultural training and agricultural research Bibliography Land, the State and the Unfinished Decolonisation Project in Africa Chitonge, Horman, Mine, Yoichi, 2019-06-25 This book focuses on the work of one of the leading African scholars on the land question and agrarian transformation in Africa Sam Moyo It offers a critical discussion in conversation with Sam Moyo of the land question and the response of African states Since independence African states have been trying to address the colonial legacy on land policy and governance After six decades of formulating and implementing land reforms most countries have not succeeded in decolonising approaches to land policy and the administrative framework The book brings together the broader debates on the implications of decolonisation of Africa's land policy Through case studies from several African countries the book offers an empirical analysis on land reforms and the emerging land relations and how these affect land allocation and use including agricultural production Most of the chapters discuss how the unresolved land question in post colonial Africa impacts on agricultural production and rural development broadly The failure to decolonise colonial land policy and the imported tenure systems has left post colonial African states dancing to two tunes resulting in schizophrenic land and agrarian policies The book demonstrates that the failure by African states to reconcile imported and indigenous land tenure systems and practices is evident in the deliberate denigration of customary tenure It is also evident in the rising land inequality and the neglect of the agricultural sector the small scale and subsistence sub sectors in particular
