Change in South-East Asia Raymond Bryant, Michael Parnwell, 2005-08-03 Environmental Change in South East Asia brings together scholars journalists consultants and NGO activists to explore the interaction of people politics and ecology Ostensibly green activities plantation forestry eco tourism hydro electricity are revealed as guises used by elites to promote their own political and economic interests Highlighting fatal flaws in presently exclusive economic and ecological approaches the authors stress that neither the quest for sustainable development nor the process of environmental change itself can be understood without reference to political processes

Development of Small-scale Industries During the New Order Government in Indonesia Tulus Tahi Hamonangan Tambunan, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 As in many other LDCs in Indonesia small scale industries SSIs are important particularly with respect to the creation of employment opportunities SSIs are expected to absorb many millions of workers who have been displaced by current economic crisis This work seeks to explain the pattern of development of SSIs in Indonesia within a broader theoretical framework It also deals with a number of SSI development related aspects that in Indonesia so far have never or rarely been studied such as the formation of strategic alliance cluster development and application of theories of flexible specialization to the LDCs The book also tries to examine empirically the effects of the current economic crisis and to assess theoretically the likely impact of the full implementation of the agreed IMF reform package on SSI development in the country Main problems faced by small producers and the government policy environment are highlighted through several detailed examples

The Institutional Foundations of East Asian Economic Development Y. Hayami, M. Aoki, 1998-12-13 The International Economic Association was foremost in reviving professional economists concern with institutions and their impact in publications such as Economic Institutions in a Dynamic Society 1989 This volume concentrates on the states whose development has been characterised as the East Asian miracle in the light of the performance of other economies starting from similarly low income levels including India China African states especially Nigeria and Latin American countries including Brazil This comprehensive comparative survey in economic history demonstrates the external shocks and interacting domestic forces which constituted the growth dynamic Nobel Laureates Kenneth Arrow and Douglass North and past President of the IEA the late Michael Bruno are among the thirty four highly distinguished specialist contributors

The Politics of NGOs in Indonesia Bob S. Hadiwinata, 2003-08-29 This book deals with two major issues how Indonesian NGOs survived under Suharto's authoritarian rule and how NGOs contributed to the promotion of democracy in the post Suharto era If NGOs are to change from development to movement in democratic post Suharto Indonesia they must adjust not only their management and working style but also their very ideology This comprehensive study will be an important book for scholars interested in Asian studies Indonesian politics and development studies

Poverty, Inequality and Development Alain de Janvry, Ravi Kanbur, 2006-06-09 This collection of essays honors a remarkable man and his work Erik Thorbecke has made significant contributions to the microeconomic and the macroeconomic analysis of poverty inequality and development ranging from theory to empirics and policy The essays in this volume display the same range As a collection they make the fundamental point that deep understanding of these phenomena requires both the micro and the macro perspectives together utilizing the strengths of each but also the special insights that come when the two are linked together After an overview section which contains the introductory chapter and a chapter examining the historical roots of Erik Thorbecke's motivations the essays in this volume are grouped into four parts each part identifying a major strand of Erik's work Measurement of Poverty and

Inequality Micro Behavior and Market Failure SAMs and CGEs and Institutions and Development The range of topics covered in the essays written by leading authorities in their own areas highlight the extraordinary depth and breadth of Erik Thorbecke's influence in research and policy on poverty inequality and development Acknowledgements These papers were presented at a conference in honor of Erik Thorbecke held at Cornell University on October 10-11 2003 The conference was supported by the funds of the H E Babcock Chair in Food Nutrition and Public Policy and the T H Lee Chair in World Affairs at Cornell University Indonesia William C. Gender, Work and Tourism M Thea Sinclair, M. Thea Sinclair, 2005-08-18 Gender Work and Tourism examines the central role played by women in the tourism industry It discusses the nature of their work and the ways in which tourism creates tensions between the attitude and conduct of tourists and the beliefs and behaviour of local women Among the areas explored are the segmentation of tourism work in Northern Cyprus women's and men's work in Bali and the division of social and political power gendered tourism work in Mexico and the Philippines material and ideological changes in sex tourism in South East Asia and the exploitation of South East Asian women in Japan Risk, Shocks, and Human Development R. Fuentes-Nieva, P. Seck, 2016-11-09 Sudden negative events are part of life but some are more disastrous than others This book analyzes the consequences of sudden negative shocks in the short and long term well being of people and how the policies implemented before during and in the immediate aftermath of the event could help prevent these long lasting effects

Governing Resources in a Changing Environment Mangku Purnomo, 2011 Until 1998 Indonesia was ruled by an authoritarian regime under which natural resources were exploited excessively so that resources governance was not appropriate anymore dealing with sustainability issue Throughout the contemporary reform process with the decentralization of power via local and regional autonomy natural resources are no longer dominated by direct state power only but also managed by more actors at various levels of society To employ the concepts of political ecology new institutionalism livelihood strategy and social sustainability the research showed that spatial production of Upland Bromo have always been dominated by state actors in order to establish the control over land and people In the other hand the contemporary environmental changes socially and physically coincidentally lessen the availability and productivity of the resources which in turn has affected the local people's livelihoods leading to the increasing struggle for resources As a result three kinds of new local resources governance namely multi institutional relationship bilateral institutional relationship and personal relationship based resources governance are formed In association with the sustainability issue these new local resources governance was not really sustainable signalling by negative value in indicators analysed ability to develop sustainability bridge the sustainability and maintenance sustainability This research gives clear explanation that transformation of regime from authoritarian to democratic in developing countries do not always has significance impact in promoting sustainable resources governance Hunger 1992, 1991 Bread for the World Institute on Hunger Development The report co sponsored

Development, Social Change and Environmental Sustainability Sumarmi,Nanda Meiji,Joan Purwasih,Abdul Kodir,Edo Andriesse,Dorina Ilies,Ken Miichi,2021-06-24 Nowadays the concept of SDGs Sustainable Development Goals is starting to replace the concept of MDGs Millennium Developmental Goals It is a global goal adopted by all United Nations member states It emphasizes the idea that the development of every country can only be achieved by balancing other factors such as social economic and environmental sustainability It is already clear how sustainable development works with environmental ethics and management However there are still issues regarding the sustainable development and human well being Sustainable development should focus on finding a way for society to meet their present needs for the long term without sacrificing the ability of future generations to meet their needs This international seminar provides research results and literature regarding the topic of sustainable development concept the dynamics of sustainable development and social change and environmental sustainability The international seminar entitled 1st International Conference on Contemporary Sociology and Educational Transformation listed speakers from several countries providing an overview on human and environmental resilience This book contains a selection of papers presented at the conference

Finance Against Poverty: Volume 2 David Hulme,Paul Mosley,2006-01-16 The theory that poverty in the world s poorest regions can be overcome through microeconomic policies is examined through case studies of seven developing countries providing some startling conclusions

How the World Hunger Problem Was not Solved Christian Gerlach,2024-02-14 The world food crisis 1972 1975 gave rise to new development concepts To eradicate world hunger small peasants were supposed to use modern inputs like high yielding seeds fertilizer pesticides and irrigation This would turn subsistence producers into business owners transform rural areas invigorate national economies and the crisis stricken world economy and thus stabilize capitalism Together with an in depth account of the world food crisis this book analyses how this global scheme largely failed It shows its diverse initiators their reasoning and motives its political breakthrough the degrees to which it was implemented globally and nationally in the following decades and its socioeconomic effects in rural areas Despite internationally coordinated policies and coercive means the scheme failed on all levels situation analysis design policies incapable institutions including big business implementation and peasants responses Selective realization in certain regions and for certain crops and the appropriation of funds by local elites often aggravated inequality and hunger Case studies are about Bangladesh Indonesia Tanzania and Mali The book shows limits to global social engineering imperialism and state control It is aimed at students scholars activists and non specialists interested in development and the world food problem The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
