A New Modern History of East Asia Eckhardt Fuchs, Tokushi Kasahara, Sven Saaler, 2017-12-04. For decades, historians and societal forces have campaigned for rapprochement, reconciliation, and dialogue between East Asian nations. This book is a result of these efforts. Debates regarding the interpretation of the modern history of East Asia continue to affect bilateral relations between the states of the region. History education has become a particularly controversial issue in this context. This book's main message is that a common understanding regarding the history of East Asia is possible, even though some differences remain. It is not only a major contribution to reconciliation in the region but also the first textbook on the history of East Asia written collaboratively by scholars from three East Asian countries; it is also highly recommended for use in an anglophone teaching environment. The authors are a group of historians, teachers, and concerned citizens from China, Japan, and South Korea.
