Looking At Sweden Looking At Other Countries:

Looking at Violence in the Nordic Countries Jukka-Pekka Takala, Yaira Obstbaum, Nordic Council of Ministers, 2009
This report reviews and discusses violence statistics and their problems and possible improvements from various angles The report is based on the work of the statistical subproject of the Nordic Project on Violence Violence and its reduction in the Nordic countries V ld och v ldsreducering i Norden financed by the Nordic Council of Ministers and carried out by the Nordic councils for crime prevention and the Scandinavian Research Council for Criminology The Statistics Subproject was to look at three related but originally separate subprojects of the original overall plan 1 To describe and compare violence with the help of extant statistics 2 To chart variations in violence in the Nordic countries 3 To develop instruments of measuring violence in intimate relations including violence in the family With the resources available the subproject was unable to carry out any of these tasks in a truly systematic and comprehensive manner However we hope that the variable material we were able to produce on all these themes can contribute to better accounting for violence and be of help when devising methods for preventing violence The report describes levels and trends in violence It touches on problems and solutions in their measurement Some suggestions are tentative others are more firmly established and the reader can turn to the research and web pages that are referred to in the reports

Sweden's Grand Strategy Douglas Brommesson, Ann-Marie Ekengren, Anna Michalski, 2025-05-22 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Using the example of Sweden the authors reassess the grand strategies of small states in international politics from the end of World War II until its new membership in NATO in 2024 Utilizing role theory they identify a small state's grand strategy through specific national foreign policy roles which at certain times coalesce into master roles Four foreign policy action strategies building on domestic agency and the influence of systemic structures depict this domestic process of role adaptation Sweden's foreign policy roles were shaped according to the degree of autonomy and integration deemed necessary for security economic development and social cohesion as perceived by the domestic political elite The ensuing empirical analysis identifies this set of evolving roles in an increasingly unstable international security environment The authors thus explore how a small state can develop certain roles over time and how the dominant roles can coalesce into an overarching grand strategy The Oxford Studies in Grand Strategy is a major new series of cutting edge monographs that examine the grand strategies of states and those intergovernmental organizations and nonstate actors who credibly aspire to sovereignty Books concentrate on the contemporary aspects of grand strategy while paying due respect to the historical antecedents of a nation's grand strategy and their relevance for a leadership's current choices The series is pluralistic in terms of theory and method and maintains a broad view of the ways means and ends that undergird a grand strategy Analytical and explanatory in contribution books in the series feature a rigorous analysis of the interaction between domestic factors and global forces and provide a clear understanding of how that interaction shapes a grand strategy s formulation codification and implementation Series Editors Thierry Balzacq Sciences Po Paris Peter Dombrowski US Naval War College and Simon Reich Rutgers University Newark Latin America's Potential in Nation Branding: A Closer Look at Brazil's, Chile's and Colombia's Practices Eva Niesing,2013-09 In the globalized world of today a well elaborated long term oriented nation branding strategy can help nations to improve and to better control of their nation image Nation branding activities increase the countries competitiveness in the global marketplace and help to foster the tourism arrivals inward foreign direct investment flows and exports and further they help to attract talented workforce and students Despite its growing importance most Latin American countries still have not engaged enough in the area of nation branding and mostly only focus their activities on the tourism promotion The region s countries have a good image regarding soft factors such as their people and tourism attractions but have a weak image regarding their products and investment opportunities Brazil has a relatively good nation image in many dimensions but still has not developed an extensive nation branding strategy Chile and Colombia are among the Latin American countries which have started to conduct more complete nation branding activities Although such advances can be observed there is still a lot of improvement potential in the nation branding practices of Latin American countries A New Look at Trade Policy Toward the Communist Bloc Samuel Pizar,United States.
