America, Look at Spain Merwin Kimball Hart, 1939 Official Report American Association of School Administrators, 1948-01-01 An Historical Essay on Modern Spain Richard Herr, 1974-11-20 More political than cultural in its emphasis this enormously detailed scholarly yet thoroughly readable book about modern Spain under Franco should fascinate any reader curious to know what changes have been wrought in that country in the past 30 years Professor Herr UCLA and Berkeley has researched painstakingly and drawn a clear authentic and meaningful portrait of Spain today as it is rapidly being transformed from an agrarian society to one now predominantly industrial Publishers Weekly Professor Herr is also seeking the origins of modern Spain his history is Aristotelian in that the end dominates the process He seeks these origins in the later eighteenth century when the traditional order was perceived to be a bar to progress A group of civil servants influenced by the European Enlightenment sought to bring Spain into Europe believing that industrial progress education and agrarian reform would do the trick but all their reforms were opposed by Catholic traditionalists Hence the division into the two Spains Yet it is not the old crude version of two Spains so often served up to explain everything from the failure of university reform to the Civil War that Professor Herr plumps for He sees the course of Spanish history explained by the rise and modification of the Moderado oligarchy he does throw out a lifeline in a sea of complexities and gives us the best short account of Franco Spain Spectator This is a work of substantial interest and value which must be recommended as a well balanced readable and scholarly introduction to a subject which has never ceased to be controversial and is still in the process of reinterpretation commands a high place among the general histories of Spain Journal of Modern History The Business Year: Mexico 2024 , 2024-02-23 To understand how the investment environment has evolved over recent months in Mexico our team conducted a year long on the ground research operation that included interviews with over 150 business leaders and officials defining trends across every major sector of the economy It is an election year in Mexico meaning the often turbulent Obrador administration is drawing to a close In contrast with the nervousness and uncertainty we witnessed ahead of his inauguration our team notes a particular sense of ease around the upcoming elections as CEOs and investors are more familiarized with Morena the party founded by the incumbent president Overall 2024 is expected to see an unusual general continuity of business during an election year thanks to the fact that both of the main presidential candidates are not expected to announce disruptive macroeconomic policies Through this 220 page publication featuring interviews with top business leaders from every major sector of the economy as well as a range of articles and analysis we present a comprehensive snapshot of the Mexican economy and the investment environment at this crucial period Latin America's Potential in Nation Branding: A closer look at Brazil's, Chile's and Colombia's practices Eva Niesing, 2013-09-27 In the globalized world of today a well elaborated long term oriented nation branding strategy can help nations to improve and to better control of their nation image Nation branding activities increase the countries competitiveness in the global marketplace and help to foster the tourism arrivals inward foreign direct investment flows and exports and further they help to attract talented workforce and students Despite its growing importance most Latin American countries still have not engaged enough in the area of nation branding and mostly only focus their activities on the tourism promotion The region s countries have a good image regarding soft factors such as their people and tourism attractions but have a weak image regarding their products and investment opportunities Brazil has a relatively good nation image in many dimensions but still has not developed an extensive nation branding strategy Chile and Colombia are among the Latin American countries which have started to conduct more complete nation branding activities Although such advances can be observed there is still a lot of improvement potential in the nation branding practices of Latin American countries
