Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage the book is divided into eleven chapters There are tributes for mothers fathers children spouses and soulmates friends siblings and other close relatives soldiers and victims of war or violence pets and general readings appropriate for men women or any loved one These selections will also prove helpful for clergy counselors and hospice hospital and funeral professionals Appendices list resources and support organizations and each selection is indexed by author title and first line A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film novel or celebrity's funeral so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context The Gaia Conspiracy: Don

Richardson, 2008-11-11 The Gaia Conspiracy The Last Days of Homo sapiens is a narrative about an eclectic group of Americans on a canoe trip on the Yukon River with a guide who is a self taught renaissance man whose mission in life is to educate his charges about the true realities of life on this little oasis in space a counterpoint to the propaganda of the corporate media leading us into holocausts on all fronts The adventure changes their lives their perceptions of their country their vision of the future and leads them to realize that business as usual playing the game within a corrupt system dominated by greed and lust for power can only end in our last hour on this stage and they determine to make an effort to reverse our rush into the abyss knowing that apathy ignorance and denial are powerful forces working against them
