Driving with Dvor?_k Fleda Brown Jackson, 2010-01-01 All our lives are made of moments both simple and sublime all of which in some way partake of the cultural moment Fleda Brown is that rare writer who in narrating the incidents and observations of her life turns her story by wit and insight and a poet s gift into something more This is an unconventional memoir A series of lyrical essays about life in a maddeningly complex family during the even more maddeningly complex fifties and sixties it adds up to one woman s story while simultaneously reflecting the story of her times A strange and erratic father a resigned and helpless mother a mentally disabled brother a sister with a brain tumor folded into Brown's reflections are the intimacies and ambivalences of family and marriage girlhood and adolescence identity and self knowledge Whether reflecting on the automobile industry or a wrenching parting from beloved pets or the process of aging Brown's telling rings with great humor profound perception and a lyricism that makes even the most commonplace moment uncommonly good reading
