Lure Of Knowledge Lesbian Sexuality And Theory:

The Sounds of Feminist Theory Ruth Salvaggio, 1999-01-01 A range of contemporary feminist critical writers are discussed Gloria Anzaldua Judith Butler Helene Cixous Rachel Blau DuPlessis Jane Flax Susan Griffin Donna Haraway Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva Elaine Pagels Adrienne Rich Eve Sedgwick Joan Scott Jane Tompkins Trinh Minh ha and Patricia Williams Their investment in the oral modulations of words marks not only a provocative engagement with the incommensurability of contemporary theory but also a turn to the ambiguous and tangled qualities of language poetic literacy that generate an evocative epistemology BOOK JACKET

A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof, 1991 Lesbianism in literature has been dealt with rather indirectly in the past Editors have led readers to the artistry of a work containing lesbianism emphasizing instead the literary history and historical context of the work rather than the representations of lesbianism The editor for Colette's The Pure and the Impure for instance affirms that Colette has a knowledge of a strange sisterhood but assures readers she has never strayed from the normal In the groundbreaking A Lure of Knowledge Judith Roof demonstrates that representations of lesbian sexuality occupy specific locations or positions in the arguments subject matter and rhetoric of Western European and American literary criticism She examines the political context of representations how lesbian sexuality is used as a signifier and why it appears when and where it does Roof argues that attempts to depict or explain lesbian sexuality spur anxieties about knowledge and identity In reaction to and denial of these anxieties lesbian sexuality is represented in film literature theory and criticism as foreplay as simulated heterosexuality as erotic excess as joking inauthenticity as artful compromise or as masculine mask in a specific repertoire of neutralization and evasion Challenging the heterosexism of film theory and feminist theory this book analyzes the rhetorical use of lesbian sexuality Roof explores a range of discourses from the works of such authors as Anaïs Nin Olga Broumas Julia Kristeva Jane Rule Luce Irigaray and Sigmund Freud to films such as Emmanuelle Desert Hearts Entre Nous and I've Heard the Mermaids Singing to professional tennis

Ross, 2017-06-22 Bad Attitude(s) on Trial is a critical analysis of pornography in the context of contemporary Canada The notion that pornography both reflects sexual domination and victimizes women has recently found expression in law in the landmark Canadian Supreme Court decision of R v Butler 1992 Many feminists embrace this new law as progressive but in the post Butler years straight mainstream pornography is still flourishing while sexual representations that challenge conventional notions of sexuality such as those centering on gay and lesbian sex and s m sex are the focus of censorship It is the censorship of sexual others that the authors critique from a legal cultural gay and philosophical standpoint Lise Gotell examines the intervention of the Women's Legal Education and Action Fund LEAF in the Butler decision and provides an overview of socio legal debates on pornography and censorship Brenda Cossman examines the Butler decision itself and challenges the dominant reading of this case as a feminist victory Becki Ross critically examines the expert testimony she delivered in defense of Bad Attitude an American lesbian sex magazine seized by police from Glad Day Bookshop in Toronto in 1992 She details the difficulties she encountered in explicating and contextualizing the specificities nuances and complexities of lesbian s m fantasy in a court of law In the final chapter Shannon Bell advances a conception of pornography that is not distinguishable from philosophy using philosophy to make pornography Bad Attitude(s) on Trial provides a new debate on pornography and feminism It will be of particular interest to students of both women's and gay and lesbian issues but will also be relevant for scholars of law political science and philosophy as well as for anyone interested in a different provocative view of the Butler decision

Unmaking Love Ashley T. Shelden, 2017-01-10 The contemporary novel does more than revise our conception of love it explodes it queers it and makes it unrecognizable Rather than providing union connection and completion love in contemporary fiction destroys the possibility of unity harbors negativity and foregrounds difference Comparing contemporary and modernist depictions of love to delineate critical continuities and innovations Unmaking Love locates queerness in the novelistic strategies of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Hanif Kureishi Alan Hollinghurst and Hari Kunzru In their work queer love becomes more than shorthand for sexual identity It comes to embody thwarted expectations disarticulated organization and unnerving multiplicity In queer love social forms are deformed affective bonds do not bind and social structures threaten to come undone Unmaking Love draws on psychoanalysis and gender and sexuality studies to
