Early English Text Society, 1927 English Manuscript Studies, 1100-1700 Peter Beal, Jeremy Griffiths, 1993-01-01
Encompassing the study of manuscripts produced in the British Isles between the Conquest and the end of the seventeenth century this series provides a forum for the interdisciplinary investigation of both medieval and Renaissance manuscripts
Monographic Series Library of Congress, General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1959 Local Place and the Arthurian Tradition in England and Wales, 1400-1700 Mary Bateman, 2023
The first in depth study of Arthurian places in late medieval and early modern England and Wales Winner of the 2024 Dhira B Mahoney Prize for Outstanding Scholarly Book in Arthurian Studies
Places have the power to suspend disbelief even concerning unbelievable subjects The many locations associated with King Arthur show this to be true from Tintagel in Cornwall to Caerleon in Wales But how and why did Arthurian sites come to proliferate across the English and Welsh landscape What role did the medieval custodians of Arthurian abbeys churches cathedrals and castles play in placing Arthur How did visitors experience Arthur in situ and how did their experiences permeate into wider Arthurian tradition And why in history and even today have particular places proven so powerful in defending the impression of Arthur's reality This book the first in depth study of Arthurian places in late medieval and early modern England and Wales provides an answer to these questions
Beginning with an examination of on site experiences of Arthur at locations including Glastonbury York Dover and Cirencester it traces the impact that they had on visitors among them John Hardyng John Leland William Camden who subsequently used them as justification for the existence of Arthur in their writings It shows how the local Arthur was manifested through textual and material culture in chronicles notebooks and antiquarian works in stained glass windows earthworks and display tablets Via a careful piecing together of the evidence the volume argues that a new history of Arthur begins to emerge a local history of on site experiences of Arthur at locations including Glastonbury York Dover and Cirencester it traces the impact that they had on visitors among them John Hardyng John Leland William Camden who subsequently used them as justification for the existence of Arthur in their writings It shows how the local Arthur was manifested through textual and material culture in chronicles notebooks and antiquarian works in stained glass windows earthworks and display tablets Via a careful piecing together of the evidence the volume argues that a new history of Arthur begins to emerge a local history of on site experiences of Arthur at locations including Glastonbury York Dover and
