M/OTHER Clara A. B. Joseph, 2024-02-09 What does it mean to love a woman a mother an other and hold her at arm s length Clara Joseph s third collection of poems M OTHER skillfully navigates the nuances and irony of this daily exercise With each turn of the page the narrative gains emotional intensity and takes readers on unexpected journeys such as this one He smiled like the man he was as he copied wonder into my lap And I bent to smell his washed scalp the nip was barely visible And the snake slid away in the shadows between our hooves While the collection playfully experiments with language and form it never obscures the gravity of its themes as in the parenthetical query Could I be a Ruth to my Naomi Or would I be simply ruthless The collection is divided into three parts each exploring the multifaceted nature of motherhood uncovering biographical details certainties uncertainties and the intricacies of hidden pasts It also contemplates unconventional messages both reverent and irreverent unveiling their magical essence In the final section the book contemplates senility and will death and miracle and survival and freedom Nadaber, a tradition: with other poems.
