Nadia, Captive of Hope Fay Afaf Kanafani, 1999 An East gate book Nadia, Captive of Hope: Memoir of an Arab Woman Fay Afaf Kanafani, 2016-07-01 A rare feminist perspective on a people and a culture in one of the most tumultuous regions in the world Nadia Captive of Hope is the autobiography of Fay Afaf Kanafani an Arab Muslim woman born in Beirut in 1918 Encyclopedia of Arab American Artists Faye S. Oweis, 2007-12-30 The rich history and culture of the Arab American people is found in the passionate works of its artists Whether they be traditional media such as painting and calligraphy or more sophisticated media such as digital work and installation the pieces represent the beauty of heritage the struggles of growing up in war torn countries the identity conflicts of female artists in male dominated societies and the issues surrounding migration to a Western culture very different from one's own Many of the artists included here though their works appear in museums and galleries throughout the world have never before been featured in a reference book Interviews conducted by the author provide a personal look into the experiences and creative processes of these artists Artists included Etel Adnan Wasma Chorbachi Nihad Dukhan Kahlil Gibran Sari Khoury Emily Jacir Sari Khoury Mamoun Sakkal Mary Tuma Madiha Umar Afaf Zurayk Ethnic American Literature Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2015-02-17 Unlike any other book of its kind this volume celebrates published works from a broad range of American ethnic groups not often featured in the typical canon of literature This culturally rich encyclopedia contains 160 alphabetically arranged entries on African American Asian American Latino and Native American literary traditions among others The book introduces the uniquely American mosaic of multicultural literature by chronicling the achievements of American writers of non European descent and highlighting the ethnic diversity of works from the colonial era to the present The work features engaging topics like the civil rights movement bilingualism assimilation and border narratives Entries provide historical overviews of literary periods along with profiles of major authors and great works including Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Maya Angelou Sherman Alexie A Raisin in the Sun American Born Chinese and The House on Mango Street The book also provides concise overviews of genres not often featured in textbooks like the Chinese American novel African American young adult literature Mexican American autobiography and Cuban American poetry Arab Voices in Diaspora, 2009-01-01 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayez Suyoufie

Catching a Wave Rory Dicker, Alison Piepmeier, 2016-02-01 Young women today have benefited from the strides made by grassroots social activists in the 1960s and 1970s yet they are hesitant to identify themselves as feminists and seem apathetic about carrying the torch of older generations to redress persistent sexism and gender based barriers Contesting the notion that we are in a post feminist age this provocative collection of original essays identifies a third wave of feminism The contributors argue that the next generation needs to develop a politicized collective feminism that both builds on the strategies of second wave feminists and is grounded in the material realities and culture of the twenty first century Organized in five sections that mirror the stages of consciousness raising this is an engaging often edgy look at a broad range of perspectives on the diversity complexity multiplicity and playfulness of the third wave It is also a call to action for new voices to redefine a feminism that is not only personally aware but also politically involved

Autobiographical Identities in Contemporary Arab Culture Valerie Anishchenkova, 2014-07-16 Over the last 40 years autobiography in Arab societies has moved away from exemplary life narratives and toward more unorthodox techniques such as erotic memoir writing postmodernist self fragmentation cinematographic self projection and blogging Valerie Anishchenkova argues that the Arabic autobiographical genre has evolved into a mobile unrestricted category arming authors with narrative tools to articulate their selfhood Reading works from Arab nations such as Egypt Iraq Morocco Syria and Lebanon Anishchenkova connects the century s rapid political and ideological developments to increasing autobiographical experimentation in Arabic works The immense scope of her study also forces consideration of film and online forms of self representation and offers a novel theoretical framework to these various modes of autobiographical cultural production

Reconstructing Beirut Aseel Sawalha, 2010-05-01 Once the cosmopolitan center of the Middle East Beirut was devastated by the civil war that ran from 1975 to 1991 which dislocated many residents disrupted normal municipal functions and destroyed the vibrant downtown district The aftermath of the war was an unstable situation Sawalha considers a postwar state of emergency even as the state strove to restore normalcy This ethnography centers on various groups responses to Beirut's large privatized urban renewal project that unfolded during this turbulent moment At the core of the study is the theme of remembering space The official process of rebuilding the city as a node in the global economy collided with local day to day concerns and all arguments invariably inspired narratives of what happened before and during the war Sawalha explains how Beirutis invoked their past experiences of specific sites to vie for the power to shape those sites in the future Rather than focus on a single site the ethnography crosses multiple urban sites and social groups to survey varied groups with interests in particular spaces The book contextualizes these spatial conflicts within the discourses of the city's historical accounts and the much debated concept of heritage voiced in academic writing politics and journalism In the afterword Sawalha links these conflicts to the social and political crises of early twenty first century Beirut The Diffusion of "Small" Western Technologies in the Middle East Uri M. Kupferschmidt, 2023-10-04 In recent years we have become interested in the diffusion of small Western technologies in the countries of the Middle East during the 19th and 20th centuries the era of Imperialism and first globalization We postulated a contrast between small and big technologies Under the latter category we may understand railway systems electricity grids telegraph networks and steam navigation imposed by foreign powers or installed by connected local entrepreneurs But many small Western technologies such as sewing machines typewriters pianos eyeglasses and similar consumer goods which had been developed and manufactured in Europe and America were wanted and willingly acquired by the agency of individual users elsewhere In a few cases however the inventions had to be adapted or were overstepped and even delayed Some were adopted as social markers or status symbols only by elites who could afford them Processes of adoption and diffusion therefore differed according to cultural settings preferences and needs Social and cultural historians and social scientists not only of the Middle East will find in this collection of essays a new approach to the impact of Western technological inventions on the Middle East

Deconstructing Sexuality in the Middle East Pinar Ilkkaracan, 2016-05-13 Exploring the contemporary dynamics of sexuality in the Middle East this volume offers an in depth and unique insight into this much contested and debated issue It focuses on the role of sexuality in political and social struggles and the politicization of sexuality and gender in the region Contributors illustrate the complexity of discourses debates and issues focusing in particular on the situation in Iran Iraq Jordan Lebanon Pakistan Palestine and Turkey and explain how they cannot be reduced to a single underlying factor such as religion or a simple binary opposition between the religious right and feminists Contributors include renowned academicians researchers psychologists historians human rights and women s rights advocates and political scientists from different countries and backgrounds offering a balanced and contemporary perspective on this important issue as well as highlighting the implication of these debates in larger socio political contexts

Against Empire Zillah Eisenstein, 2013-07-18 In Against Empire Zillah Eisenstein extends her critique of neoliberal globalization and its capture of democratic possibilities Faced with an aggressive American empire hostage to ideological extremism and violently promoting the narrowest of its interests around the globe Eisenstein urgently looks to a global anti war movement to counter U S power Looking beyond the distortions of mainstream history Eisenstein detects the silencing of racialized sex gendered and classed ways of seeing Against Empire insists that the so called West is as much fiction as reality while the sexualized black slave trade emerges as an early form of globalization The West and western feminisms do not monopolize authorship there is a need for plural understandings of feminisms as other than western Black America India the Islamic world and Africa envision unique conceptions of what it is to be fully polyversally human Professor Eisenstein offers a rich picture of women s activism across the globe today If there is to be hope of a more peaceful more just and happier world it lies she believes in the understandings and activism of women today
