New And Selected Poems 19581998 Green Integer:

New and Selected Poems Gilbert Sorrentino, 2004 Although best known for his fiction including novels such as Little Casinos and Gold Fools Sorrentino is also a distinguished poet This volume reprints his Selected Poems 1958 1980 and includes 27 new poems and poem sequences published since 1980 Sorrentino's poetry is at once beautifully imagistic and filled with the magic of startling language His works are precise and yet dazzlingly abstract some use to great effect Oulipian devices Satiric landscapes are alternated with brilliant recastings of older forms Encyclopedia of the New York School

Poets Terence Diggory, 2009 An A to Z reference to writers of the New York School including John Ashbery who is often considered America's greatest living poet Examines significant movements in literary history and its development through the years Translating Jazz Into Poetry Erik Redling, 2017-02-20 The study develops a new theoretical approach to the relationship between two media jazz music and writing and demonstrates its explanatory power with the help of a rich sampling of jazz poems Currently the mimetic approach to intermediality e g the notion that jazz poetry imitates jazz music still dominates the field of criticism This book challenges that interpretive approach It demonstrates that a mimetic view of jazz poetry hinders readers from perceiving the metaphoric ways poets rendered music in writing Drawing on and extending recent cognitive metaphor theories Lakoff Johnson Turner Fauconnier it promotes a conceptual metaphor model that allows readers to discover the innovative ways poets translate melody dynamics tempo mood and other musical elements into literal and figurative expressions that invite readers to imagine the music in their mind's eye i e their mind's ear American Literature in Transition, 1990-2000 Stephen J. Burn, 2017-12-28 Written in the shadow of the approaching millennium American literature in the 1990s was beset by bleak announcements of the end of books the end of postmodernism and even the end of literature Yet as conservative critics marked the century's twilight hours by launching elegies for the conventional canon American writers proved the continuing vitality of their literature by reinvigorating inherited forms by adopting and adapting emerging technologies to narrative ends and by finding new voices that had remained outside that canon for too long By reading 1990s literature in a sequence of shifting contexts from independent presses to the AIDS crisis and from angelology to virtual reality American Literature in Transition 1990 2000 provides the fullest map yet of the changing shape of a rich and diverse decade's literary production It offers new perspectives on the period's well known landmarks Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon David Foster Wallace but also overdue recognition to writers such as Ana Castillo Evan Dara Steve Erickson and Carole Maso The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century Douglas Messerli, 2000 The fifth volume of this acclaimed anthology features the work of innovative poets of southern California This gathering of 28 poets does not write a particular kind of poetry but as individuals they have worked together through a series of intersecting ideas and interests to create some of the best writing of contemporary poetry contradicting many of the simplistic notions of people outside of the region In his introduction editor Douglas Messerli provides a complete history of the loosely knit group and the

interrelationships within it Ed Atkins Carolyn Christov-Bakargiev, Marianna Vecellio, 2016 Conceived by Atkins as an artist's book the main body is a collage of imagery text and graphical elements Ed Atkins Oxford England 1982 makes videos draws and writes reflexively performing the ways in which contemporary modes of representation from bathetic poetry to computer generated animation attempt to do justice to powerfully emotional and embodied experience Atkins work is at once a disturbing diagnosis of a digitally mediated present day and an absurd prophecy of things to come It is skeptical of the promises of technology yet suggests that it is possible to salvage subjectivity through a kind of sincere burlesque of love and hate suspending a hysterical sentimentality within the desperate lives of the surrogates he creates This catalogue edited by Carolyn Christov Bakargiev and Marianna Vecellio accompanies the exhibition developed as a collaboration between Castello di Rivoli Museo d'Arte Contemporanea and Fondazione Sandretto Re Rebaudengo With new essays by the editors and by Irene Calderoni and Chiara Vecchiarelli the book is accompanied by a scholarly timeline and an anthology that includes a selection of the artist's unpublished writings plus critical writings by Kirsty Bell Melissa Gronlund Martin Herbert Leslie Jamison Joe Luna Jeff Nagy Mike Sperlinger and Patrick Ward together with interviews by Katie Guggenheim Hans Ulrich Obrist Beatrix Ruf and Richard Whitby The Belly of Paris Émile Zola, 2006 One of Zola's most wonderfully descriptive and least known titles The locale is the newly built food markets of Paris Into this extravagance of food which Zola describes in set pieces that wet the tongue stir the belly excite the ear he places his young hero half starved Florent who has just escaped imprisonment in Cayenne Florent finds himself at odds with a world he now knows is unjust Gradually he takes up with the local Socialists who are more at home in bars than on the revolutionary streets Shadowtime Charles Bernstein, Brian Ferneyhough, 2005 Shadowtime is a thought opera based on the work and life of the German philosopher essayist and cultural critic Walter Benjamin The libretto was written by Bernstein for composer Brian Ferneyhough and was premiered at the Munich Biennale In its seven scenes Shadowtime explores some of the major themes of Benjamin's work including the intertwined natures of history time transience language and melancholy Beginning on the last evening of Benjamin's life Shadowtime projects an alternate course for what happened that fateful night Charlie P Richard Kalich, 2005 In Charlie P author Richard Kalich offers us a singularly unique comic and outlandish Everyman A looney tune figure of the American manchild the kind of eternally adolescent men one sees on any American street corner who in his episodic adventures through life loses his penis is completely dismembered suffocated starved and cut in half yet continues to come back for more At age three when his father dies he decides to overcome mortality by becoming immortal By not living his life he will live forever Whether he's pursuing the girl of his dreams or a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow Charlie P ends up with no more than a peck on the cheek or robbed blind Even when dead and called to Heaven for an accounting he remains the eternal optimist Now that he's dead and gone he finally has a real chance at achieving his ends He can start over Having never lived his life his life has not yet hardly begun Akin to other great American icons such as Sinclair

Lewis s Babbitt Ring Lardner s Al and Forrest Gump Charlie P plumbs the relation between fantasy and reality to offer us a character both asocial and alienated and at the same time at the heart of the American Dream BOOK JACKET Islands Jean Grenier, Larry Eigner, 2005 Islands some of Grenier s most lovingly written and personal philosophical speculations was first published in an edition of five essays in 1933 The revised edition with six essays was published with a preface by Albert Camus in 1948 the third edition upon which this translation is based was published in 1959 Grenier s memoir of his cat Mouloud is also an essay on the nature of death a series of childhood memories becomes the basis for an essay on his attraction to the void Everything is connected as one idea leads to an other from author to reader to society at large

Tousled Beauty Dieter M. Gräf, 2005 Selection of the young German poet s work emphasising poetry often broken and scruffy from before the 21st century Many of the poems were written on the road in Europe and Asia as well as during a stay at the villa Aurora in Los Angeles in 1999 The poems were translated in unusually close co operation between author and translator with the author even revising some of the German poems in the process Antonello's Lion Steve Katz, 2005 In his first novel since Swanny s Ways Steve Katz takes another look at the failure of Humanism in the West through the lens of the great Sicilian master Antonello da Messina A father and son who have never met both set out on quests for meaning in their lives The father is obsessed with Antonello and convinced he can find what he thinks is a lost painting of St Francis He gets lost on the way and disappears The son becomes obsessed with finding out what happened to the father and his discoveries are more than he can absorb This is a double picaresque that takes turns through fantasy sexual follies and wild historical and philosophical speculations The frail positionings of order in art are played against the background of contemporary chaos BOOK JACKET White Magic and Other Poems Krzysztof Kamil Baczyński, 2005 One of the greatest Polish poets of the 20th century Baczynski was born in Warsaw in 1921 In the early war years he wrote copiously and studied Polish literature in the underground university where he met Barbara Drapczynska whom he married in 1942 The beautiful love poems he wrote to Barbara make up an important part of his writings In 1943 he joined the Armia Krajowa Home Army of the Polish resistance In August 1944 Baczynski was killed in action His mother preserved his manuscripts and in 1961 they were published for the first time The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century: At Villa Aurora: nine contemporary poets writing in German Douglas Messerli, 2000 The 7th volume in Green Integer s ongoing international poetry series The Modern Fable Junzaburō Nishiwaki, 2007 Born in 1894 Nishiwaki Junzaburo began by writing poems in English and French his first two books being published in the UK Throughout his long life his work was described as a translatory a violation of the mother tongue This new collection of poetry by the great Japanese poet contains work from six of Nishiwaki s volumes Ambarvalia No Traveller Returns The Modern Fable The Third Myth Slumber of a Gem and Book of Rites work published from 1933 to 1963 revealing his work to English language readers Nishiwaki died in 1982

Metropolis Vienna Peter Rosei, 2009 Originally published in 2005 Metropolis Vienna like Heimito von Doderer s great novel The Demons Sun Moon Books 1993 before it follows several individuals in Vienna as their stories interlink with each other But unlike von Doderer's work which focuses on the events leading up to WWII Rosei's novel concerns the beautiful Austrian city in the second half of the 20th century A profound and moving novel that introduces one of the great Austrian writers to an English speaking audience

A Tragic Man Despite Himself Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, 2005 Well known throughout the world for his late 19th and early 20th century plays Uncle Vanya The Three Sisters The Sea Gull and The Cherry Orchard Anton Chekhov also wrote numerous short dramatic sketches faces burlesques and dialogues In this volume George Malko has newly translated all of these dramatic writings 19 works dating from 1883 to 1902 six of which have never before been translated into English As translator George Malko notes this gathering is a reminder that despite a life of tragedy Chekhov believed in life's enduring comic humanity

The PIP Anthology of World Poetry of the 20th Century: Living space: poems of the Dutch Fiftiers Douglas Messerli, 2000 In 1979 Peter Glassgold edited for New Directions a poetry collection from 7 Dutch writers known throughout Europe as The Fiftiers poets who having grown up in the turbulent 1940s came of age as poetic and visual experimenters in the 50s This revealing collection has remained an influential testament to this exciting poetry ever since withstanding newer and larger selections of poetry from the Netherlands This revised and expanded edition includes a note by Douglas Messerli

A Moral Lesson Paul Éluard, 2007 Originally published in 1949 A Moral Lesson explores good and evil as slightly unpredictable forces which at times might be perceived as indistinguishable Yet Eluard explores the two with a determined effort to transform evil into good Through our perseverance we will render pain and error harmless This poetic dialogue stands as a magnificent testament to Eluard's poetry and his life

1001 Great Stories Douglas Messerli, 2005 Among the noted figures of this volume are the American author Djuna Barnes the Algerian French novelist and poet Mohammed Dib the Greek author Andreas Embiricos Czech dramatist Daniela Fischerova Japanese experimentalist Hagiwara Sakutarō German modernist Georg Heym novelist Aldous Huxley Slovenian author Lojze Kovacic and Italian American Niccolò Tucci The editor envisions this short fiction series as an entertaining and educational project that will help English language readers discover the joys of international writing
