literary scholars Keeping in Contact Judith Mary Brown, 1971 The Aesthetics of Anthony Burgess Jim Clarke, 2017-10-26 The book is the first full length text on Anthony Burgess's fiction in a generation and offers a radical and innovative way of understanding the extensive literary achievements of one of the twentieth century's most innovative authors This book explores Burgess's dazzlingly diverse range of novels through the one key theme which links them all the artistic process itself Borrowing from Nietzsche's aesthetic dichotomy of Apollo and Dionysus the book uncovers the protracted evolution of Burgess's fiction and offers a unifying theory which links his early postcolonial fiction chronologically via his modernist experiments like A Clockwork Orange and Nothing Like The Sun to his late classics Mozart and Wolfgang and A Dead Man in Deptford This volume clarifies Burgess's seminal role as both late modernist and early postmodernist and lucidly unveils the legacy of England's most mercurial novelist The Durrells of Corfu Michael Haag, 2017-04-20 The Durrell family are immortalised in Gerald Durrell's My Family and Other Animals and its ITV adaptation The Durrells But what of the real life Durrells Why did they go to Corfu in the first place and what happened to them after they left The real story of the Durrells is as surprising and fascinating as anything in Gerry's books and Michael Haag with his first hand knowledge of the family is the ideal narrator drawing on diaries letters and unpublished autobiographical fragments The Durrells of Corfu describes the family's upbringing in India and the crisis that brought them to England and then Greece It recalls the genuine characters they encountered on Corfu Theodore the biologist the taxi driver Spiro Halikiopoulos and the prisoner Kosti as well as the visit of American writer Henry Miller And Haag has unearthed the story of how the Durrells left Corfu including Margo's and Larry's last minute escapes before the War An extended epilogue looks at the emergence of Larry as a world famous novelist and Gerry as a naturalist and champion of endangered species as well as the lives of the rest of the family their friends and other animals The book is illustrated with family photos from the Gerald Durrell Archive many of them reproduced here for the first time Creativity, Madness and Civilisation Richard Pine, 2021-04-16 What is creativity And what is madness How far can we interpret an artist's work through our knowledge of his or her mental state and how far can we infer a mental state from a work of art When does a work of art cease to be a personal statement by the artist and become a matter of public concern The contributions to this book attempt to answer some of these questions They come from a wide range of disciplines and experiences a practising psychiatrist a practising artist suffering from reactive depression and critics working in literature film music and the visual arts The essays include discussions of the myth of creativity the music of Robert Schumann the borders of sanity in the writing of Lawrence Durrell the insane truth of Virginia Woolf the meeting of doctor and patient in the poetry of Anne Sexton mood disorders in the fiction of David Foster Wallace love and madness in the poetry of Hafiz of Shiraz and the paintings of Adolf W lfl Central to this discussion of creativity madness and civilisation is the difficulty of establishing an appropriate and effective vocabulary and mindset between critics and clinical psychiatrists which would enable them to work together in understanding mental disturbance in creative artists Lawrence Durrell's Poetry Isabelle Keller-Privat, 2019-04-25 This book offers the first in depth analysis of Lawrence Durrell's entire poetic opus from his early collections in the 1940s up to his last one published in 1973. Thirty years of Durrellian poetry are brought together in order to unveil the genesis of Durrell's writing both poetic and fictional drawing links to his novels and residence books which he kept writing at the same time. Durrell thus appears as first and foremost one of the greatest late modernist poets whose literary and epistemological investigations are to be understood in the light of a worldwide network of literary brotherhoods including T. S. Eliot, Michael Fraenkel, Henry Miller and David Gascoyne. Simultaneously this book shows why Durrell must also be read as the heir to the greatest English romantic poets Byron, Shelley, Keats and Wordsworth as well as to the French symbolists and modernists from Baudelaire to Nerval, Valéry and Cendrars. This comparative approach opens up a brand new perspective on Durrell that has not yet been broached by North American and English scholarship. The symbolic patterns, the stylistic ploys and the aesthetic and philosophic tenets that characterize Durrell's poetics account for the necessary back and forth reading that connects prose and poetry, the fictional and the lyrical, the descriptive and the abstract. Poetry excerpts, extracts from his residence books, novels and essays highlight not only Durrell's complex literary strategies but also the ontological quest of a writer who although never at home with the world he lived in strove to create a life world, what semiologists call the Umwelt.

Nunquam Lawrence Durrell, 1970 Minor Mythologies as Popular Literature Richard Pine, 2018-10-01 This is the first single author study of the genres and roots of popular literature in its relation to film and television, exploring the effects of academic snobbery on the teaching of popular literature. Designed for classroom use by students of literature and film and their teachers, it offers case studies in quest literature, detective fiction, the status of the outlaw and outsider and the interdependence of self, other and the uncanny. It challenges perceived notions of and prejudices against popular literature and affirms its connection with the deepest human experiences. Indian Metaphysics in Lawrence Durrell's Novels

Ravindran Nambiar, 2014-01-08 In this study of the influence of Indian metaphysics on Lawrence Durrell's novels, Professor Nambiar offers a unique milestone in the history of Durrellian criticism. Embracing Durrell's search for universal awareness through Western and Indian metaphysics, the book presents a new metaphysical reading of the writer's prose that has remained untapped until now. Exploring Durrell's quest for a new reality through fiction, Nambiar focuses in depth on The Avignon Quintet and questions the complex symbolic patterns that shape the polymorphous characters' peregrinations through space and time. With much subtlety, modesty and wit, Indian Metaphysics in Lawrence Durrell's Novels opens up the mysterious doors of the kingdom of the imagination. T.L.S., 1970 The Oxford Encyclopedia of British Literature

O'Loughlin,2022-03-06 This project is quite unusual in that it combines in separate parts autobiographical writings with biographical sketches of some of the writers who have influenced John O Loughlin most including Jean Paul Sartre Albert Camus Aldous Huxley Arthur Koestler Henry Miller Hermann Hesse and Lawrence Durrell At the end Mr O Loughlin has appended a list of books borrowed from his local library during a twelve year period coinciding in part with the composition of this text so that one can compare his reading material and what he thought of it with the original material of this project as a guide to how becoming eventually turned for him into being The Disappointed Bridge Richard Pine,2014-06-02 This original study is the first major critical appraisal of Ireland's post colonial experience in relation to that of other emergent nations The parallels between Ireland India Latin America Africa and Europe establish bridges in literary and musical contexts which offer a unique insight into independence and freedom and the ways in which they are articulated by emergent nations They explore the master servant relationship the functions of narrative and the concepts of nationalism map making exile schizophrenia hybridity magical realism and disillusion The author offers many incisive answers to the question What happens to an emerging nation after it has emerged Survey of Science Fiction Literature Marshall B. Clawson,2016-06-20 Reading the twelve major novels of Lawrence Durrell this study argues for their consideration as a single major project an opus marked by themes of liminality and betweenness As major texts of mid twentieth century literature repeatedly earning nominations for the Nobel Prize Durrell's work has attracted renewed critical attention since his centenary in 2012 This study shows the thematic unity of the opus in five areas First by disrupting expectations of love and death and by fashioning plural narrators works in the opus blend notions of the subject and the object Second in their use of metafictional elements the texts present themselves as neither fiction nor reality Third their approach to place and identity offers something between the naturalistic and the human centric Fourth though the texts initial concerns are engaged with understanding the past and preparing for a future they all resolve in something like the present And fifth though the novels reject many aspects of modernism they reside nevertheless between the poles of modernism and postmodernism Shared with other writers including T S Eliot and Henry Miller as early as the 1940s Durrell's plans for his major works of fiction remained consistent through the publication of the last novel in 1985 and these plans show the need to consider the twelve major works as a unitary whole
