Author: Nurse, Historian, Music Scholar. Coming Home Wendy Kline, 2019. Coming Home tells the story of how a significant number of parents in postwar America opted out of the standardized medicated hospital birth and recast home birth as a legitimate and desirable choice. The Rocks of Arachenzia Ashton, Elizabeth, 1974. Marketing Dreams, Manufacturing Heroes Anna Romina Guevarra, 2009-09-30. In a globalized economy that is heavily sustained by the labor of immigrants, why are certain nations defined as ideal labor resources and why do certain groups dominate a particular labor force? The Philippines has emerged as a lucrative source of labor for countries around the world. In Marketing Dreams, Manufacturing Heroes, Anna Romina Guevarra focuses on the Philippines, which views itself as the home of the great Filipino worker and the multilevel brokering process that manages and sends workers worldwide. She unravels the transnational production of Filipinos as ideal migrant workers by the state and explores how race, color, class, and gender operate. The experience of Filipino nurses and domestic workers, two of the country's prized exports, is at the core of the research, which utilizes interviews with employees at labor brokering agencies, state officials from governmental organizations in the Philippines, and nurses working in the United States. Guevarra's multisited ethnography reveals the disciplinary power that state and employment agencies exercise over care workers managing migration and garnering wages to govern social conduct and brings this isolated yet widespread social problem to life. The Death Artist Dennis Etchison, 2002-02. Collected for the first time in paperback are 12 of Etchison's finest tales of horror and suspense. The winner of multiple World Fantasy and British Fantasy awards, Etchison shows what lurks behind the veil of familiarity.
