Charles Morris and the Criticism of Discourse Richard A. Fiordo, 1977

Charles S. Peirce, 1839–1914 Gérard Deledalle, 1990-01-01 This work is the intellectual biography of the greatest of American philosophers Peirce was not only a pioneer in logic and the creator of a philosophical movement pragmatism he also proposed a phenomenological theory quite different from that of Husserl but equal in profundity and long before Saussure and in a totally different spirit a semiotic theory whose present interest owes nothing to passing fashion and everything to its fecundity Throughout his life Peirce wrote continually about sign and phenomenon or phaneron Consequently his writings must be studied chronologically if they are not to appear incomprehensible or contradictory One of the merits of this book is to clarify Peirce's thought by analysing its development chronologically We follow the evolution of Peirce's thought from his critique of Kantian logic and Cartesianism Chap I Leaving the Cave 1851 1870 to his discovery of modern logic and pragmatism Chap II The Eclipse of the Sun 1870 1887 and finally to a semiotic founded on a phenomenology the base of which is the logic of relations and the crowning point scientific metaphysics Chap III The Sun Set Free 1887 1914 The book includes a detailed chronology a general bibliography and an index

Economic Writings Otto Neurath, 2006-03-03 This book makes available for the first time in English a substantial part of Otto Neurath's economic writings The essays and small monographs translated here extend from his student years to his last ever finished piece They chart not only Neurath's varied interests in the economic history of antiquity in war economics and schemes for the socialisation of peacetime economies in the theory of welfare measures and social indicators and in issues of the theory of collective choice but also show his philosophical interests emerging in his contributions to seminal debates of the German Social Policy Association This volume shows that Neurath's important contributions to the socialist calculation debate are but one aspect of a many sided and original oeuvre The translations are preceded by an introductory essay by one of the editors which contextualises the selections by locating them in the various debates of the time that provided their original setting This book is of interest to economists philosophers of social science and of economics as well as to historians of philosophy of science and of analytic philosophy

The Self as a Sign, the World, and the Other Susan Petrilli, 2013-06-30 Ostentation of the Subject is a practice that is asserting itself ever more in today's world Consequently criticism by philosophers psychologists sociologists and anthropologists has been to little effect considering that they are not immune to such practices themselves The question of subjectivity concerns the close and the distant the self and the other the other from self and the other of self It is thus connected to the question of the sign It calls for a semiotic approach because the self is itself a sign its very own relation with itself is a relation among signs This book commits to developing a critique of subjectivity in terms of the material that the self is made of that is the material of signs Susan Petrilli highlights the scholarship of Charles Peirce Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Mary Boole Jacques Derrida
