Barbara Tomblin, 2003-11-28 Weaving together information from official sources and personal interviews Barbara Tomblin gives the first full length account of the U S Army Nurse Corps in the Second World War She describes how over 60 000 army nurses all volunteers cared for sick and wounded American soldiers in every theater of the war serving in the jungles of the Southwest Pacific the frozen reaches of Alaska and Iceland the mud of Italy and northern Europe or the heat and dust of the Middle East Many of the women in the Army Nurse Corps served in dangerous hospitals near the front lines 201 nurses were killed by accident or enemy action and another 1 600 won decorations for meritorious service These nurses address the extreme difficulties of dealing with combat and its effects in World War II and their stories are all the more valuable to women s and military historians because they tell of the war from a very different viewpoint than that of male officers Although they were unable to achieve full equality for American women in the military during World War II army nurses did secure equal pay allowances and full military rank and they proved beyond a doubt their ability and willingness to serve and maintain excellent standards of nursing care under difficult and often dangerous conditions Joshua's Vision William John Locke, 1928 Queen's Nurses' Magazine , 1928 For the Boys NCR Davis, 2023-09-30 This novelistic narrative captures both the violence and trauma of WWII and its subject s remarkable heroism Publishers Weekly A month after her 24th birthday Lt Mary Elizabeth Balster collapses among the rubble of a shelled supply room Has the young nurse finally succumbed to the mounting emotional toll caused from months of caring for the sick and wounded just behind the front lines of General Patton s Third Army On the night of November 30 1944 holed up in the Heinrich Himmler Barracks in Morhange France Lt Balster s evac receives a typical patient load over 200 soldiers including wounded enemy but this time one of the admissions is a 19 year old tanker she d nursed back to health five months before in Normandy The charge nurse on Surgical gently informs the lieutenant that the private is critical admitted with two gunshot wounds and almost half his body consumed by burns Rising determined to save him Balster limps toward the shelled supply room determined to search for any blood plasma bottles still intact after Luftwaffe strafing Recaptured from her mother s reminiscences and letters home N C R Davis takes the reader through every heat of battle harrowing moment as Balster lived it achieving a rare glimpse of one nurse s point of view during the latter part of the European conflict The book mixes Lt Balster s observations memories and dreams to re tell the true story of a richly rebellious and intense woman trying to navigate her life and nurture her sanity while nursing the wounded and dying frontline soldiers of the Third Army Her strong willed beguiling personality fosters the grit necessary for her success as a combat nurse but these same characteristics cause two men to fall in love with her And the personal cost of war comes to a heartrending conclusion as she must choose one man over the other to save herself
