Pledge Of Hatred:

Pledge of Hatred André, Alix, 1981 Hatred Berit Brogaard, 2020 The first in depth philosophical analysis of personal hate and group hate Hatred Understanding Our Most Dangerous Emotion explores how personal hatred can foster domestic violence and emotional abuse how hate proneness is a main contributor to the aggressive tendencies of borderlines narcissists and psychopaths how seemingly ordinary people embark on some of history s worst hate crimes and how cohesive groups subjected to spontaneous forces of group polarization can develop extremist viewpoints of the sort that motivate hate crimes mass shootings and terrorism The Politics of Hate Speech Laws Alexander Brown, Adriana Sinclair, 2019-09-18 This book examines the complex relationship between politics and hate speech laws domestic and international How do political contexts shape understandings of what hate speech is and how to deal with it Why do particular states enact hate speech laws and then apply extend or reform them in the ways they do What part does hate speech play in international affairs Why do some but not all states negotiate agree and ratify international hate speech frameworks or instruments What are some of the best and worst political arguments for and against hate speech laws Do political figures have special moral duties to refrain from hate speech Should the use of hate speech by political figures be protected by parliamentary privilege Should this sort of hyperpolitical hate speech be subject to the laws of the land civil and criminal Or should it instead be handled by parliamentary codes of conduct and procedures or even by political parties themselves What should the codes of conduct look like Brown and Sinclair answer these important and overlooked questions on the politics of hate speech laws providing a substantial body of new evidence insights arguments theories and practical recommendations The primary focus is on the UK and the US but several other country contexts are also explored and compared in detail including Nigeria Kenya South Africa India China Japan Turkey Germany Hungary and Italy Methodologically the two authors draw on approaches and concepts from a range of academic disciplines including law and legal theory political theory applied ethics political science and sociology international relations theory and international law Saint Genet Jean-Paul Sartre, 2012-02-01 The remarkable and controversial study of the mind life and legend of Jean Genet Landscapes of Hate Edward Hall, John Clayton, Catherine Donovan, 2024-03-12 Providing a much needed perspective on exclusion and discrimination this book offers a distinct spatial approach to the topic of hate studies Of interest to academics and students of human geography criminology sociology and beyond the book highlights enduring diverse and uneven experiences of hate in contemporary society The collection explores the intersecting experiences of those targeted on the basis of assumed and historically marginalized identities It illustrates the role of specific spaces and places in shaping hate why space matters for how hate is encountered and the importance of space in challenging cultures of hate This analysis of who is able to use or abuse space offers a novel insight into discourses of hate and lived experiences of victimization Spaces of Hate Colin Flint, 2013-10-18 While much has been written about hate groups and extreme right political movements this book will be the first that addresses the crucial role that place and context play in generating and shaping them Ranging across geographical scales the essays start with the home and then move from the local to the regional to the national to finally the global In this collection much of the focus is on the U S as the contributors consider a variety of hate activity and hate groups across the country including rural white supremacist and neo Nazi movements anti black sentiment directed towards cities anti gay activity in cities and rural areas and the resurgent Southern nationalist movement Closing with pieces from those who combat hate activity the intention of Spaces of Hate is to recognize specific geographic settings likely to foster hate activity

Killing Enmity Thomas R. Yoder Neufeld, 2011-06-01 Is the New Testament inherently violent In this book a well regarded New Testament scholar offers a balanced critical assessment of charges and claims that the Christian scriptures encode instigate or justify violence Thomas Yoder Neufeld provides a useful introduction to the language of violence in current theological discourse and surveys a wide range of key ethical New Testament texts through the lens of violence nonviolence He makes the case that contrary to much scholarly opinion the New Testament is not in itself inherently violent or supportive of violence instead it rejects and overcomes violence Published in the UK by SPCK as Jesus and the Subversion of Violence Wrestling with the New Testament Evidence

Hate Crimes Barbara Krasner, 2017-07-15 Few would argue that a violent attack motivated by negative feelings towards the victim's race ethnicity religion or sexual orientation is a hate crime But should a hate motivated crime be punished differently than the same crime committed for a different motive What if the crime is verbal a slur or a ranting blog post or a graffiti scrawl These may be hateful but are they hate crimes And how should they be punished Are hate crimes on the rise or are media attention and greater sensitivity to the issue making it appear so These and other questions are at the center of this thought provoking collection of articles drawn from across the political spectrum and the globe

Summer of Hate Hawes Spencer, 2018-08-07 In August 2017 violence erupted in Charlottesville Virginia during two days of demonstrations by white supremacists neo Nazis and counterprotesters including members of antifa and Black Lives Matter Ostensibly motivated by the city's plans to remove Confederate statues from two public parks members of the alt right descended first on the University of Virginia and then disastrously on the city's downtown As these violent and ultimately deadly events gripped the attention of the nation extensive coverage in both mainstream and fringe media promulgated competing narratives Summer of Hate is the investigative journalist Hawes Spencer's unbiased probing account of August 11 and 12 Telling the story from the perspectives of figures on all sides of the demonstrations Spencer who reported from Charlottesville for the New York Times carefully recreates what happened and why Focusing on individuals including activists city councilors faith leaders and the police Spencer creates an objective panoramic narrative that renders these dramatic events and the ongoing conflicts underlying them in all their complexity
