Png History Through Stories:

PNG History Through Stories Eric Johns, 2004 PNG History Through Stories Eric Johns, 2006 The Chinese in Papua New Guinea Anna Hayes, Rosita Henry, Michael Wood, 2024-05-16 Papua New Guinean Chinese and Australian people have long been entangled in the creation of complex histories and political debates concerning the similarities and differences of each group. These debates are fundamental to understanding how a sense of national unity in Papua New Guinea is formed as well as within analyses of the wider world of strategic power dynamics and influence. The Chinese in Papua New Guinea offers a comprehensive and nuanced examination of the Chinese in Papua New Guinea. Chinese Papua New Guinean and Australian interactions are analysed in the context of ongoing shifts in colonial power, increased regional engagement with China, and current political instabilities across the Indo-Pacific region. The many ways the Chinese have been defined as actors in PNG's history and politics are analysed against the backdrop of a rapidly changing global order. The complexity of Chinese experiences within Papua New Guinea is given expression here with chapters that stress political and historical heterogeneity, the importance of language for understanding Chinese social relations, and that articulate rich personal experiences of race relations.

A History of Papua New Guinea from Prehistory to Independence Eric Johns, 2025-08 With the aid of over three hundred illustrations, rare photographs, and maps, A History of Papua New Guinea from Prehistory to Independence covers Papua New Guinea's earliest history and recounts the fascinating story of its journey through its world war and colonial history to independence. It is the only complete and definitive history covering this important period in PNG History.

Melanesian Stories Lawrence McCane, 2004-01-01 Marist Brothers are a group of committed men whose mission is education, especially of the most needy students. Inspired by their founder's vision which encompassed the entire world, Brothers today reach out to all wherever they are with hearts that know no bounds. This book brings to life the stories of Marist Brothers' educational work in Solomon Islands and Papua New Guinea. From uncertain nineteenth-century beginnings through the turmoil of the Second World War, the Bougainville Crisis, and the Solomon Island Ethnic Tensions, the story of the coming of age of an authentic Marist Melanesian Brotherhood unfolds in these pages.

Political Life Writing in the Pacific Jack Corbett, Brij V. Lal, 2015-07-29 This book aims to reflect on the experiential side of writing political lives in the Pacific region The collection touches on aspects of the life writing art that are particularly pertinent to political figures public perception and ideology identifying important political successes and policy initiatives grappling with issues like corruption and age old political science questions about leadership and dirty hands These are general themes but they take on a particular significance in the Pacific context and so the contributions explore these themes in relation to patterns of colonisation and the memory of independence issues elliptically captured by terms like culture and tradition the nature of self presented in Pacific life writing and the tendency for many of these texts to be written by outsiders or at least the increasingly contested nature of what that term means End of the Line Robert F. McKillop, Michael Pearson, 1997 Papua New Guinea is commonly thought to be a land without railways At the very least railways do not immediately come to mind as a topic for historical research in Papua New Guinea Nevertheless we set out to document and record something of the history of local railways in 1971 initially as individual projects Inevitably our interest in the topic of railways brought us together and we have been working collaboratively on our research since 1980 At first the task was to identify and document the railways which have operated in Papua New Guinea To our surprise we now have records of some 150 railway lines many of them small hand pushed operations from a jetty to a copra store or around a sawmill Others have yielded fascinating stories of more substantial enterprises and the endeavours of colonial pioneers at the frontier As we brought the material together we began to realise that we not only had stories about small railway operations around the country but we also had the basis for a new look at some basic elements of Papua New Guinea economic history Through the story of railways we had identified important themes which helped us learn about the economic conditions of today from the experience of the past Pioneer Stories from the Buffalo Trace [Vol. I] James R. Columbia, 2018-01-25 This volume is part of a two volume set that contains over 1 000 local and national articles from historical newspapers and other publications relating to the pioneer history of the area of northeastern Kentucky known as the Buffalo Trace including the counties of Mason Bracken Fleming Robertson and Lewis and the adjacent Ohio counties of Adams and Brown The Cambridge History of the Pacific Ocean: Volume 1, The Pacific Ocean to 1800 Ryan Tucker Jones, Matt K. Matsuda, 2023-01-05 Volume I of The Cambridge History of the Pacific Ocean provides a wide ranging survey of Pacific history to 1800 It focuses on varied concepts of the Pacific environment and its impact on human history as well as tracing the early exploration and colonization of the Pacific the evolution of Indigenous maritime cultures after colonization and the disruptive arrival of Europeans Bringing together a diversity of subjects and viewpoints this volume introduces a broad variety of topics engaging fully with emerging environmental and political conflicts over Pacific Ocean spaces These essays emphasize the impact of the deep history of interactions on and across the Pacific to the present day Globalisation and Governance in the Pacific Islands Stewart Firth, 2006-12-01 The Pacific Islands are feeling the effects of globalisation Free trade in sugar and garments is threatening two of Fiji's key industries. At the same time other opportunities are emerging. Labour migration is growing in importance and Pacific governments are calling for more access to Australia's labour market. Fiji has joined Samoa, Tonga, Tuvalu and Kiribati as a remittance economy with thousands of its citizens working overseas. Meantime Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands grapple with an older kind of globalisation in which overseas companies exploit mineral and forest resources. The Pacific Islands confront unique problems of governance in this era of globalisation. The modern democratic state often fits awkwardly with traditional ways of doing politics in that part of the world. Just as often politicians in the Pacific exploit tradition or invent it to serve modern political purposes. The contributors to this volume examine Pacific globalisation and governance from a wide range of perspectives. They come from Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Hawaii, the Federated States of Micronesia, Samoa, Fiji, New Zealand and Jamaica, as well as Australia. Publisher's description

The Political Economy of Divided Islands G. Baldacchino, 2013-02-21. The authors investigate the exceptional political economy of the ten inhabited islands whose territory is divided amongst two or more countries that are unitary geographical spaces but fragmented polities.

Mobile Story Making in an Age of Smartphones Max Schleser, Marsha Berry, 2018-04-07. The participatory turn in media arts and design along with interrelated developments in the proliferation of social and network media have changed our understanding of the contemporary mediascape. Mobile Story Making in an Age of Smartphones reveals how smartphones and storytelling are forming a symbiosis that empowers twenty-first century citizens and creatives around the world. The edited collection further develops definitions and debate around creative mobile media and its impact on media art and design. It brings together mobile artists, digital ethnographers, filmmakers working with smartphones, illustrators, screenwriters, as well as musicians utilizing apps and mobile devices who explore new directions in the creative arts with a focus on screen production. Lastly, it demonstrates how mobile devices and smartphones can make a difference in people's lives and catalyses creativity in order to tackle current socio-cultural issues.

Globalization and Papua New Guinea: Ancient Wilderness, Paradise, Introduced Terror and Hell Falk Huettmann, 2023-04-26. This book aims to present a reality view for Papua New Guinea based on many years of first-hand field work and research accounts. It further assesses sustainability in the light of 47,000 years of a self-sustained type of civilization without bad global impacts. This book contrasts the modern sustainable development failures from the colonial times onwards as promoted by the western world, namely Australia, the UK, EU and the US, as well as Japan and now China in times of globalization. Trumpism and royal governance: Papua New Guinea is still part of the British Dominion and of the Antarctic Treaty etc. This assessment and book is the first of its kind, also employing modern data analysis, Landscape Ecology principles, patterns and processes, telecoupling and Geographic Information Systems (GIS) with Open Access data, focusing on ecological economics, marxism, socialism and contrasting it with current capitalism and neoliberalism that Papua New Guinea is fully exposed to. Throughout the 31 book chapters various aspects are covered how a further insistence on the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and so called Development Aid will result in unwanted side effects and perverse outcomes for Papua New Guinea and for the world in times of wider global change and unprecedented man made crisis

Multivocal Archaeologies of the Pacific War, 1941-45 Ben Raffield, Yu Hirasawa, Neil Price, 2023-07-21 This volume draws together the ground breaking work of researchers and archaeological practitioners working in multiple countries to explore and understand the material and cultural impacts of the Pacific War The combat taking place in the Pacific region during the years 1941 45 was characterized by a brutality and violence unmatched in any other theatre of the Second World War Described by indigenous Micronesians as a typhoon the war was an unstoppable force that rolled across the islanders homes leaving only a trail of destruction in its wake with physical psychological and cultural impacts that continue to resonate today This difficult period is examined in a variety of ways through chapters that include targeted studies of archaeological sites wider surveys of battlefield landscapes and the ways in which we commemorate the experiences and legacies of both combatants and civilian populations The translation of important research by Okinawan Japanese and Russian archaeologists brings into focus regions that have previously been neglected in Anglophone literature and enriches this comprehensive exploration of the archaeology of the Pacific War This book will be of interest to archaeological practitioners students and members of the general public working in conflict studies or with an interest in the material culture history and legacies of the Pacific War

Capital Punishment, Clemency and Colonialism in Papua New Guinea, 1954-65 Murray Chisholm, 2024-07-02 This study builds on a close examination of an archive of files that advised the Australian Commonwealth Executive on Papua New Guineans found guilty of capital offences in PNG between 1954 and 1965 These files provide telling insight into conceptions held by officials at different stages of the justice process into justice savagery and civilisation and colonialism and Australia s role in the world The particular combination of idealism and self interest liberalism and paternalism and justice and authoritarianism axiomatic to Australian colonialism becomes apparent and enables discussion of Australia s administration of PNG in the lead up to the acceptance of independence as an immediate policy goal The files show Australia gathering the authority to grant mercy into the hands of the Commonwealth and then devolving it back to the territories In these transitions the capital case review files show the trajectory of Australian colonialism during a period when the administration was unsure of the duration and nature of its future relationship with PNG

Mutual, Cooperative and Employee-Owned Businesses in the Asia Pacific Chris Rowley, Jonathan Michie, 2017-10-02 The 25 years leading up to the international financial crisis have been depicted as capitalism unleashed containing deregulation privatisation demutualisation and financialisation Yet remarkably given this economic and political context co operatives and mutuals appear to have been gaining ground in many countries albeit modestly even before the international financial crisis and the resulting global recession from which the global economy is still only slowly recovering The 2007 2008 international financial crisis called into question how appropriate the shareholder owned model is certainly if it is allowed to dominate the financial services sector However the International Co operative Alliance is determined to make the mutual and co operative sector of the economy a dynamic sustainable and increasingly important sector of the global economy This book looks at the contribution of co operative mutual and employee owned firms to the Asia Pacific economy both currently and prospectively and the challenges the standard Western model faces regarding employment and output It also looks at the role of Governments the nature of co operatives in China and the role of the state and the future prospects for cross border growth of co operative and mutual business within Asia Pacific and more widely This book was originally published as a Special Issue of Asia Pacific Business Review The Boy from Boort Bill

Gammage,Gavan Daws,Brij V. Lal,2014-07-27 Hank Nelson was an academic film maker teacher graduate supervisor and university administrator His career at The Australian National University ANU spanned almost 40 years of notable accomplishment in expanding and deepening our understanding of the history and politics of Papua New Guinea the experience of Australian soldiers at war bush schools and much else This book is a highly readable tribute to him written by those who knew him well including his students and also contains wide ranging works by Hank himself Professor Stewart Firth ANU Forty Years in the South Seas Anne Ford,Ben Shaw,Dylan Gaffney,2024-05-09 This edited volume of invited chapters honours the four decades of fundamental research by archaeologist Glenn Summerhayes into the human prehistory of the islands of the western Pacific especially New Guinea and its offshore islands This area helped to shape and direct many ancient dispersal events associated with Homo sapiens initially from Africa more than 50 000 years ago through the lower latitudes of Asia into Australia New Guinea the Bismarck Archipelago and possibly the Solomon Islands Around 3000 years ago coastal regions of northern and eastern New Guinea and the islands of Melanesia beyond played a major role in the Oceanic migrations of Austronesian speaking peoples from southern China and Southeast Asia migrations that have recently attained new levels of genetic complexity through the analysis of ancient DNA from human remains For the first time humans of both Southeast Asian and New Guinea Bismarck genetic origin reached the islands of Remote Oceania beyond the Solomons Many of the chapters in this book deal with archaeological aspects of this Austronesian maritime expansion which never seriously impacted the populations of the New Guinea Highlands especially as revealed through the analysis of Lapita pottery and associated artefacts Other chapters offer archaeological perspectives on trade and exchange and on related topics that extend into the ethnographic era The research of Glenn Summerhayes stands centrally amongst all these offerings ranging from the discovery of some of the oldest traces of Pleistocene human settlement in Papua New Guinea to documentation of the remarkable phenomenon of Lapita expansion through Melanesia into western Polynesia around 3000 years ago This volume is a fitting celebration of a remarkable career in western Pacific archaeology and population history Emeritus Professor Peter Bellwood The Australian National University
