Our Hands Are Tied Marshall Kapp, 1998-05-12 As a critical examination of the pervasive tension existing between defensive medicine and good ethical patient care this book investigates the impact of legalities on medical treatment Physicians today are apprehensive about the threat of malpractice suits Kapp explores the extent to which this fear is justified He examines where physicians get their ideas about what the law forbids and requires how physicians perceptions of the law and medicine affect medical care and whether these behavioral manifestations benefit or hurt a physician s ability to practice ethically Kapp then suggests ways medical professionals can resolve tension caused by conflicting demands and encourage more ethical care Cumulated Index Medicus , 1986 The Encyclopedia of Aging George L. Maddox, 1995 This authoritative reference work is the pioneering interdisciplinary resource in gerontology and geriatrics It contains explanations of hundreds of terms concepts and issues related to the lives of older adults as well as the growing range of programs and services for the elderly provided by the professions communities and governmental agencies The entries were written by invited prominent scholars in biology medicine nursing psychology psychiatry sociology and social services The style of presentation makes this volume readily accessible to students and professionals from many fields and is particularly valuable to information seeking nonspecialists New Horizons in Health-Promoting Technologies: From Development to Rational Use Luciane Cruz Lopes,Cristiane De Cássia Bergamaschi,Silvio Barberato-Filho,Marcus Tolentino Silva,Brian Godman,2020-10-08 This eBook is a collection of articles from a Frontiers Research Topic Frontiers Research Topics are very popular trademarks of the Frontiers Journals Series they are collections of at least ten articles all centered on a particular subject With their unique mix of varied contributions from Original Research to Review Articles Frontiers Research Topics unify the most influential researchers the latest key findings and historical advances in a hot research area Find out more on how to host your own Frontiers Research Topic or contribute to one as an author by contacting the Frontiers Editorial Office frontiersin.org about contact Appropriate Use of Advanced Technologies for Radiation Therapy and Surgery in Oncology National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Institute of Medicine,Board on Health Care Services,National Cancer Policy Forum,2016-03-16 In recent years the field of oncology has witnessed a number of technological advances including more precise radiation therapy and minimally invasive surgical techniques Three dimensional 3D stereotactic and proton beam radiation therapy as well as laparoscopy and robotic surgery can enhance clinician s ability to treat conditions that were clinically challenging with conventional technologies and may improve clinical outcomes or reduce treatment related problems for some patients Both patients and physicians seek access to these new technologies which are rapidly being adopted into standard clinical practice Such demand is often propelled by marketing that portrays the new technologies as the latest and greatest treatments available However evidence is often lacking to support these claims and these novel technologies usually come with higher price tags and are often used to treat patients who might have achieved similar benefits from less expensive conventional treatment The increased cost of novel treatments without adequate assessment of how they affect patient outcomes is a pressing concern given that inappropriate use of expensive technologies is one of the key factors that threaten the affordability of cancer care in the United States To explore these issues further the National Cancer Policy Forum NCPF of the Institute of Medicine organized a workshop in July 2015 This is the third NCPF workshop in a series examining the affordability of cancer care Participants explored clinical benefits and comparative effectiveness of emerging advanced technologies for cancer treatment in radiation therapy and surgery and potential strategies to assess the value and promote optimal use of new technologies in cancer treatment This report summarizes the presentations and discussions from the workshop Health Care and the Rural Elderly United States.
