Re Membering Libraries Essays On The Profession:

Re-Membering Libraries T.D. Webb,2000-08-06 This collection of essays and unpublished papers is an informal sometimes irreverent look back at the author s nearly quarter century in the library profession Most chapters recall an anecdote memory or reminiscence that represents an important lesson in being a librarian or library manager and that in one way or another projects its relevance into the future of librarianship As the author notes in his Preface Libraries also need to be re membered that is taken apart examined and reassembled in order to reach the new levels of service that will be required in the future barreling toward us Among the many topics discussed are fund raising libraries as research institutions library buildings for the 21st century digitization in 21st century academic libraries globalizing American librarianship and library education reform

Library and Information Science Michael F. Bemis,2014-03-03 This unique annotated bibliography is a complete up to date guide to sources of information on library science covering recent books monographs periodicals and websites and selected works of historical importance In addition to compiling an invaluable list of sources Bemis digs deeper examining the strengths and weaknesses of key works A boon to researchers and practitioners alike this bibliography Includes coverage of subjects as diverse and vital as the history of librarianship its development as a profession the ethics of information science cataloging reference work and library architecture Encompasses encyclopedias dictionaries directories photographic surveys statistical publications and numerous electronic sources all categorized by subject Offers appendixes detailing leading professional organizations and publishers of library and information science literature This comprehensive bibliography of English language resources on librarianship the only one of its kind will prove invaluable to scholars students and anyone working in the field

Divided Libraries T.D. Webb,2012-08-10 Given the highly trained library workforce now available and the vast and growing array of packaging information and knowledge libraries have the capacity to become pre eminent places of learning research and teaching Yet despite this potential libraries remain divided from their constituencies and their governing bodies be they students faculties university administrations municipal governments or ordinary citizens Indeed many modern university administrators viewing librarians as ancillary citizens in academe have allowed their libraries to wither under the burden of shrinking budgets staffing inadequacies and deteriorating facilities This thought provoking volume by a 35 year veteran of academic libraries identifies diagnoses and provides remedies to the damaging divisions in and between libraries and librarianship arguing that the processes of teaching constitute the genuine context in which to steer librarianship into the future

The Laughing Librarian Jeanette C. Smith,2014-01-10 Despite the stodgy stereotypes libraries and librarians themselves can be quite funny The spectrum of library humor from sources inside and outside the profession ranges from the subtle wit of the New Yorker to the satire of Mad This examination of American library humor over the past 200 years covers a wide range of topics and spans the continuum between light and dark from parodies to portrayals of libraries and their staffs as objects of fear It illuminates different types of librarians the collector the organization person the keeper the change agent and explores stereotypes like the shushing little old lady with a bun the male scholar librarian the library superhero and the anti stereotype of the sexy librarian Profiles of the most prominent library humorists round out this lively study Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields, 2001 Remembering Anne Beach Carolyn Day, 2025-02-28 Remembering Anne Beach pulls back the veil on the challenges of research the problems of gaps in archives and the long process involved in constructing historical narratives Through the tragic tale of an ill fated couple and their disapproving families this microhistory explores not only forbidden love but also marriage illness death disability and scandal in eighteenth century society Drawing on the story of Anne Beach the author sheds light on the lost experiences of early modern women as well as those with mental afflictions who have left us mere fragments of their lived experiences In weaving a tragic narrative Day also tackles the problem of archival silences and provides the reader with insight into the highs and lows of the research process With charm and clarity Day describes the frustration skill determination obsession and sheer luck required to be able to provide a diligent more inclusive perception of our past The Art of Remembering Gwendolyn DuBois Shaw, 2024-03-01 Gwendolyn DuBois Shaw explores African American art and representation from the height of the British colonial period to the present seeking out the recovery of facts and narratives of African American creativity and self representation that have been purposefully set aside actively ignored and disremembered Remembering Oliver Strunk, Teacher and Scholar William Oliver Strunk, 2005 This volume celebrates the life and work of William Oliver Strunk 1901 1980 professor of musicology at Princeton University eminent scholar and author and beloved teacher It presents the papers from a conference held on January 18 19 2002 at the American Academy in Rome and the Badia Greca of Grottaferrata Some of these have been expanded for publication and one additional contribution has been included Remembering the Covenants in Song Young-Sam Won, 2019-08-20 In biblical and theological studies fresh perspectives and novel approaches can breathe new life into familiar subjects Remembering the Covenants in Song reconsiders the Abrahamic and Mosaic covenant relationship through the unique biblical and canonical lens of a postexilic song In Psalm 105 the psalmist's intriguing intertextual engagement with both of Israel's great covenant traditions provides a rare glimpse into the covenant understanding of a postexilic biblical writer interacting with the Torah Remembering the Covenants in Song entails an intertextual study of Psalm 105 that brings the psalmist's rhetorical design and covenant references into a dialogue with the Torah's seminal covenant texts The examination of the psalmist's use of covenant references and allusions represents an innovative approach to assessing the rhetorical significance of intertextuality in biblical writings An Introduction to Reference Services in Academic Libraries Elizabeth Connor, 2006-08-25 An introductory text on various aspects of reference services that requires your students to think An Introduction to Reference Services in Academic Libraries is a comprehensive textbook that presents compelling case studies and thought provoking essays that teach the principles of reference services Eighteen authorities from private and public ac

Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L. Pylodet, Charles Ammi Cutter, Bertine Emma Weston, Karl Brown, Helen E. Wessells, 1884 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Placing Memory and Remembering Place in Canada James Opp, John C. Walsh, 2010-11-01 Placing Memory and Remembering Place in Canada maps a fascinating terrain in memory studies by shifting the focus from nation and empire to local places that sit at the intersection of memory making and identity formation main streets city squares village museums internment camps industrial wastelands and the rural landscape While offering a unique perspective on the politics of place and memory across differing chronologies and geographies the first part of the book Commemorations traces how local expressions of memory such as celebrations museums statues postcards and plaques have contributed to a sense of place and belonging in twentieth century Canada The second part Inscriptions in turn explores how ordinary Canadians have embedded their memories of place in oral stories photographs and the landscape itself With its focus on the materiality of image text and artefact these essays argue for an understanding of place as imagined made claimed fought for and defended always in a state of becoming

Remembering Archaeological Fieldwork in Mexico and Peru, 1961-2003 Jeffrey R. Parsons, 2019-11-08 Half a century ago when archaeologist Jeffrey R Parsons began fieldwork in Mexico and Peru he could not know that many of the sites he studied were on the brink of destruction The rural landscapes through which he traveled were in many cases destined to be plowed under and paved over In Remembering Archaeological Fieldwork in Mexico and Peru 1961 2003 Parsons offers readers a chance to see archaeological sites that were hundreds or thousands of years old and have since vanished or been irrevocably altered Hundreds of photographs accompanied by descriptions illustrate the sites the people and the landscapes that Parsons encountered during four decades of research in these regions Parsons is now emeritus professor of anthropology at the University of Michigan and has published many archaeological monographs as well as ethnographic research on salt fish and other items used for traditional subsistence in Mexico Foreword by Richard I Ford

Information Update ,2007 Remembering Ezra Vogel Martin K. Whyte, Mary C. Brinton, 2023-11-20 Ezra F Vogel July 11 1930 December 20 2020 was one of America s foremost experts on Asia mastering the Japanese and Chinese languages and contributing important scholarly works on both countries and on their relationships with each other and with the world Starting from modest roots in an immigrant family in a small town in Ohio he came to Harvard in 1953 to train as a sociologist He then shifted his focus to Asia spending almost the entirety of his life at Harvard Vogel had a dramatic impact around the world not only through his scholarship and the students he trained but also through his friendship and mentoring of journalists diplomats business executives and foreign leaders as well as through his public policy advice and devotion to institution building at Harvard as well as nationally and internationally Active until the end his sudden death provoked outpourings of gratitude and grief from countless people whose lives he had affected The present volume containing fond reminiscences from 155 diverse individuals conveys what was so extraordinary about the character and life of Ezra Vogel

American Reference Books Annual ,2001 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering Remembering Wolsey J. Patrick Hornbeck II,2019-02-05

Remembering Wolsey seeks to contribute to our understanding of historical memory and memorialization by examining in detail the commemoration and representation of the life of Thomas Wolsey the sixteenth century cardinal papal legate and lord chancellor of England Hornbeck surveys a wide range of representations of Cardinal Wolsey from those contemporary with his death to recent mass market appearances on television and historical fiction to go beyond previous scholarship that has examined Wolsey only in an early modern context Remembering Wolsey contributes significantly to the ongoing reimagining of English church history in the years prior to the Reformation Surveying chronicle accounts pamphlets plays poems historical fictions works of historical scholarship civic pageants and monuments films and television programs the book shows how an extended sequence of authors have told widely varying stories about Wolsey s life often through the lens of their own religious and ideological commitments and or in response to the pressing concerns of their times

Remembering Lived Lives Michael Jimenez,2017-03-31 Remembering Lived Lives is a religious historiography book that focuses on issues and theorists located primarily in Latin America Instead of joining the chorus of contemporary European intellectuals like Slavoj i ek who insist on a renewed Eurocentrism this study challenges both historians and theologians to take seriously the work done by theorists located in what Enrique Dussel calls the underside of modernity This is an interdisciplinary work that opens with Karl Barth s outline for historical theological study and closes with an analysis of the film The Mission Written for both the history or theology instructor and student it deals with subjects like church history biography as theology liberation theology as primary source material photographs and historical movies A Circle of Friends: Remembering Madeleine L'Engle Katherine, editor Kirkpatrick,2010-02-12 Madeleine L Engle s friends and writing studentsremember the beloved author in nearly three dozenessays and poems illustrated with photographs
