Re Inventing Realities:

Re-Inventing Organic Metaphors for the Social Sciences Marc Antoine Campill, 2023-04-25 The Re Inventing Organic Metaphors for the Social Sciences is a volume with the specific goal to challenge psychological understandings by connecting psychological approaches with multidimensional perspectives of various other scientific streams meanwhile imbedding the generated knowledge in metaphors that allows researchers to follow phenomena into a deeper and more w holistic understanding of its appearance This is particularly important when the humankind faces challenges due to systemic biological changes as the phenomenological dynamics bonded to those challenges can be conserved in appropriated context For this purpose the organic metaphors are introduced A tool that has central advantage over mechanical metaphors as it can capture the complex and open systemic nature of biological psychological and social phenomena For example the widely used notion mind as a computer may be more productively replaced by mind as a membrane with implications e g focus on borders in between or in systems in themselves exosystemic realities in our world There are many other fertile opportunities not yet explored in the realms of psychology and other sciences Furthermore the contributors operated also as cross reviewers for each other s In this occasion a new dimension in chapter construction will be introduced Beside the traditional reviewing of another paper the reviewer has been asked to add a small list of extending questions toward the reviewed paper These added questions have been introduced as potential questions that the authors were demanded to add into a final sub chapter of their contribution The subchapter has been titled as Dialogue the author was free to select between the questions and ideas on those they believe could inhabit an especially worth for the future readers Reinventing Reality Raymond G. Spinnett, 2001-08 Reinventing America's Legacy Cities ,2011 Reinventing Philosophy of Religion G. Oppy, 2014-06-30 Considerations about the existence and nature of God are given far too much weight in contemporary discussions of philosophy of religion Against prevailing orthodoxy this introduction to philosophy of religion urges a broader perspective that attends seriously to a wide range of religious and non religious worldviews The Importance of Reinventing Oscar ,2021-11-01 The present collection of essays is the outcome of the Oscar Wilde conference held at the Technical University of Dresden 31 August 3 September 2000 The papers cover a wide range of historical and comparative aspects they look into the status of Wilde as poet dramatist essayist and intellectual during his own times as well as investigate the meaning of his work for subsequent writers and critics thus giving an outline of the Wildean history of literary reception intellectual discourse and media transformation Intellectually brilliant and challenging Oscar Wilde had been a favourite of the late Victorians performing the roles of the dandy and the poet of art for art s sake However due to his questioning of prevalent moral double standards and his insistence on the autonomy of art he was indicted for gross indecencies convicted and sent to prison Instead of being ostracised he became a source of inspiration for writers and artists on the British isles as well as on the European continent The papers in this volume explore such topics as Wilde s concepts of socialism and aestheticism his fashioning of the femme fatale and of the dandy his use of fashion and of simulation his impact on modernism and postmodernism as well as on genres such as crime writing and fictional biography and the influence of Wilde on writers such as James Joyce W B Yeats Joe Orton Peter Ackroyd Tom Stoppard David Hare and Mark Ravenhill Other papers focus on the reception of Wilde in Russia former Yugoslavia Hungary and Germany as well as on cinematic and Internet representations of Wilde Critical and creative responses vary from the general to the specific from traditional assessments to analyses of the arts of camp parody and pastiche thus indicative of the sub cultural appropriation of Saint Oscar Terry Eagleton

Inventing Reality Jeffrey Schrank, 2020-03-15 You are a reality inventor People simply don't give you enough credit in fact you don't appreciate your own creative ability What does it mean to be a reality inventor Isn't reality simply stuff that's out there We see hear taste feel and smell it but we certainly don't invent it This book claims that you do Humans are animals who create stories We are unable to not story we speak and think in stories called sentences INVENTING REALITY explores the psychology of story making and confabulation We confabulate when we create stories without an awareness of our authorship These confabulations are not perceived as invented stories instead they become our personal reality

Reinventing Religion Peter Moore, 2020-10-07 Many of us proponents and critics alike commonly make assumptions about religion We may presume that religion is mainly about having beliefs or being good or that it is concerned with spiritual rather than material issues or that religious ideas and practices are meant to be somehow timeless Such views Peter Moore argues work only to obscure the truth that religion is essentially humanity's quest to become fully human This enlightening exposition questions our very understanding of faith and contends that religions should remain open to reinventing themselves both practically and intellectually rediscovering neglected traditions and finding new ways forward Written with subtlety and passion this book gets to the heart of ongoing debates about the validity and purpose of religion

Mathematics STEM fields In doing so this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered racialised class and national divides This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post apartheid South Africa Throughout the work the author wrestles with and self reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world
