Recent Department of Education Publications in ERIC United States. Dept. of Education,1994 Advances in Education Research ,1999 Resources in Education ,1996 School-based Partnerships in Teacher Education Linda Hobbs,Coral Campbell,Mellita Jones,2018-08-14 This book demonstrates school based approaches to primary science teacher education The models used involve partnerships between universities and primary schools to engage pre service primary teachers in classroom teaching and learning that effectively connects theory with practice separate to the formal practicum arrangements The book is a culmination of the research and collaboration of researchers from five Australian universities involved in the Science Teacher Education Partnerships with Schools STEPS project funded by the Australian Government Office for Learning and Teaching While the STEPS project focused on partnerships in primary science teacher education a key strength of the partnership model the STEPS Interpretive Framework developed and explored in this book is its applicability for cross case national international and inter state analyses of partnership practices This is shown through a number of case studies where the STEPS Interpretive Framework is applied and evaluated in the context of other school or learning related partnerships These broad ranging analyses illustrate the relevance of the model to a range of settings both within and outside of education University-Industry Collaboration and the Success Mechanism of Collaboration Nian Zhiying,2022-09-01 In recent years a considerable amount of effort has been devoted both in industry and academia towards the transformation of academic research at universities into the development of advanced technologies in industry therefore enabling a full role of the university as a center of knowledge creation University Industry Collaboration and the Success Mechanism of Collaboration presents recent developments in university industry collaborations using case studies from Japan and showing the mutual needs from both universities and enterprises in the knowledge based society Technical topics discussed in this book include Development of University Industry Collaboration UIC in the world Development of UIC in Japan Case studies of UIC in Japan Contribution of UIC from Japan to the world A Professional Development School Partnership Renee W. Campoy,2000-05-30 The professional development school PDS is a unique educational reform initiative that attempts the simultaneous reform of education at the school and the university By conducting reform at both levels of education the PDS is a solution to the piecemeal reforms of the past from Dewey s Progressivism to the Sputnik reforms to New Math to Whole Language which have targeted educational change in the public schools but most have overlooked the preparation of new teachers The PDS addresses the professional development of experienced teachers in the field the preparation of new teachers and improvement of the programs of K 12 schools at the same time and at the same place the school site In this way reform goals are agreed upon and implemented by both new and experienced teachers so that reform efforts are seamlessly supported by all parties involved Nevertheless most educators engaged in PDS reform agree that PDSs are a high stakes reform effort and are fraught with difficulties This case study provides an annotated road map of one PDS partnership so that others interested in partnership work are provided general principles to guide their work

Why Not the Best Schools? Yong Zhao,Ruhui Ni,Wenzhong Yang,Qi Chen,Gaoming Zhang,2009-01-01 Expectations have been raised in Australia and comparable countries for an education revolution that will secure success for all students in all settings Such a revolution must ensure the alignment of educational outcomes the skills required for a strong economy and the needs of a harmonious society Why Not the Best Schools The US Report is part of a set of six country reports that support the title Why not the best schools The US Report contains five case studies of successful schools in the United States and examines the reasons behind their success Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1996-10 National Directory of School-college Partnerships ,1987 Routledge Handbook of University-Community Partnerships in Planning Education Megan E. Heim LaFrombois,Jay Mittal,2023-10-11 This handbook explores two guiding questions how can university community partnerships in planning education work and how can they be transformative University community partnerships often referred to as service learning or community engaged teaching and learning are traditionally based on a collaborative relationship between an academic partner and a community based partner in which students from the academic partner work within the community on a project Transformational approaches to university community partnerships are approaches that develop and sustain mutually beneficial collaborations where knowledge is co created and new ways of knowing and doing are discovered This edited volume examines a variety of university community partnerships in planning education from a number of different perspectives with a focus on transformative models The authors explore broader theoretical issues including topics relating to pedagogy planning theory and curriculum along with more practical topics relating to best practices logistics institutional support outcome measures and the various forms these partnerships can take all through an array of case studies The authors which include academics professional practitioners academic practitioners and students bring an incredible depth and breadth of knowledge and experience from across the globe Australia Canada Chile Europe including Germany Spain Slovakia and Sweden India Jamaica South Korea and the United States Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 National Directory of School-college Partnerships Franklin P. Wilbur,1987 Youth Education Programs for Neighborhood Networks Centers ,1999 Themes and Issues in Faculty Development Victor M. Rentel,Allan Dittmer,1999-10-20 The problem of how to prepare teachers for work in urban school systems is a critical issue in education today In this timely volume of contributed articles the authors describe the newly implemented faculty development programs at seven urban universities With varying success each of these universities improved the preparation of schoolteachers by developing programs to educate their own faculties on ways to address the problems of urban children their schools and their communities Until recently few urban universities were committed to local community development The authors of the case studies presented here persuasively argue that urban universities should broaden their missions to include this commitment and they provide concrete examples of how that can be done Research in Education ,1973

Enhancing Staff Development in Diverse Settings ,1988 The Department Chair as Academic Leader Irene W. D. Hecht,1999 This important new work will help department chairs faculty and administrators understand and address the increasing complexity of relationships within higher education as well as the growing influence of external factors The Department Chair as Academic Leader is a completely updated revision of Allan Tucker s seminal contribution Chairing the Academic Department last published in 1992 This work reflects the approach used in the ACE Workshops for Division and Department Chairs and Deans
