Reaching Learners Through Telecommunications Management And Leadership Strategies For Higher Education:

Reaching Learners Through Telecommunications Becky S. Duning, Marvin J. Van Kekerix, Leon M.

Zaborowski, 1993-02-15 The advent of new telecommunications technologies and a growing recognition of their potential for meeting educational needs has raised many questions about how to integrate telecommunications with existing educational programs But there is much confusion among educators about where to begin and how to proceed what skills and experience are required How should costs be projected allocated and offset How is telecommunications based education aligned with the current structure and mission of an institution What standards of quality should be applied In this book the authors offer nontechnical professionals a comprehensive guide to the process of integrating implementing and maintaining telecommunications based education in their institutions and organizations Reaching Learners Through Telecommunications offers practical advice to novice and experienced managers on every phase of administering a telecommunications based education program including analyzing the appropriateness of telecommunications based education for the individual institution determining typical expenditures and revenue sources for telecommunications based educational programs using one of the master budget formats provided in the book creating a marketing strategy that successfully integrates telecommunications into the current educational marketplace and building a comprehensive resource information base of publications associations conferences and agencies This book will prove to be a valuable resource for managers of educational telecommunications systems deans and directors of continuing higher education administrators of distance education and postsecondary education programs educators at the primary secondary and postsecondary levels business professionals in private and public industry and business and education consultants Telecommunications and Teleconferencing in Education and Training A. J. Romiszowski, Bonnie Gratch, 1995 The New Educational Technologies and Learning Ibrahim Michail Hefzallah, 2004 Ibrahim Michail Hefzallah has been on the faculty of Fairfield University since 1968 At present he is a professor of educational technology and the chair of the Educational Technology Department of the Graduate School of Education and Allied Professions Educational Technology D.D. Aggarwal, 2004 Building a Working Policy for Distance Education Connie L. Dillon, 1997-11-30 Distance education offers the potential to further the mission of the community college in significant ways However the practice of education will not change without corresponding changes in our fundamental views of teaching and learning as these are reflected in the total of our state federal and institutional policies In many ways the community college offers other sectors of higher education a vision for the future This issue of New Directions for Community Colleges presents some of the policy issues confronting higher education in the age of distance learning and discusses the implications of these issues for the community college This is the 99th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Community Colleges For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals section Planning for Higher Education , 1993 Journal of Instruction Delivery Systems , 1998

Distance Learning in California's Community Colleges ,1993 Achieving Equity in Higher Education Using Empathy as a Guiding Principle Ward, Catherine,2022-04-15 The assertion that empathy is an essential characteristic of equity work in higher education demands educators operate from a place of justice fairness and inclusive practice Empathy is a personal quality that allows educators to consider another s perspective to inform the decision making process about policy procedures program and service design and teaching pedagogy Thus engaging empathy in everyday practice supports the potential to create more equitable and inclusive environments as well as standards for serving a diverse student population Achieving Equity in Higher Education Using Empathy as a Guiding Principle explores what empathy is how empathy can be developed and how empathy can be applied in an educator s practice to achieve equity mindedness and mitigate inequitable student outcomes in and out of the classroom The book also argues that self examination and engaging empathy is a way to thoughtfully examine differences and uphold the values of humanity Covering topics such as intercultural listening and program development this reference work is ideal for administrators practitioners academicians scholars researchers instructors and students
