Teaching Legal Research Barbara Bintliff, Duncan Alford, 2013-09-13 Legal research is a fundamental skill for all law students and attorneys Regardless of practice area or work venue knowledge of the sources and processes of legal research underpins the legal professional's work. Academic law librarians as research experts are uniquely qualified to teach legal research. Whether participating in the mandatory first year law school curriculum or offering advanced or specialized legal research instruction, law librarians have the up-to-date knowledge, the broad view of the field, and the expertise to provide the best legal research instruction possible. This collection offers both theoretical and practical guidance on legal research education from the perspectives of the law librarian. Containing well-reasoned analytical articles on the topic, the volume explains and supports the law librarian's role in legal research instruction. The contributors to this book, all experts in teaching legal research, challenge academic law librarians to seize their instructional role in the legal academy. This book was based on a special issue of Legal Reference Services Quarterly. Front-Line Librarianship Guy Robertson, 2018-11-28. Front Line Librarianship: Life on the Job for Librarians presents a diverse range of observations, viewpoints, and useful commentary on the current workplace experiences of librarians and their associates. The book's author presents an unrivalled portrait of front-line librarianship that is based upon his unique experience and voice. Chapters consider workplace matters: the fate of hardcopy books; speechmaking at conferences; the effects of recessions on libraries; continuing education and corporate gift-giving programs. This book will make an excellent and useful addition to library collections in library science. Tells stories and presents interviews bringing color and texture to library experience. Shows librarianship from the perspective of a long-term practitioner. Gives different approaches to a great range of real-life workplace issues. Hearings United States. Congress. House.
