Summaries and Technical Documentation for Performance Changes in Citizenship and Social Studies Assessments, 1969-76 National Assessment of Educational Progress (Project),1979 Using Social Science to Understand and Improve Wildland Fire Organizations Gregory Larson,2007 The wildland fire community has spent the past decade trying to understand and account for the role of human factors in wildland fire organizations Social research that is relevant to managing fire organizations can be found in disciplines such as social psychology management and communication However such research has been published primarily for scientific and business audiences and much of the fire community has not been exposed to it Here we have compiled and organized knowledge from a variety of social science disciplines so that it can be used to improve organizational practices related to firefighter and public safety to assess the effectiveness of safety campaigns and to improve firefighter safety trainings This annotated reading list summarizes approximately 270 books articles and online resources that address scientific and management concepts helpful for understanding the human side of fire management The first section Human Factors and Firefighting introduces readers to key workshops and writings that led to the recognition that human factors are prime ingredients of firefighter safety The second section Foundations for Understanding Organizations consists of social science research that provides a foundation for understanding organizational dynamics This section includes readings on decision making and sensemaking organizational culture identification and identity leadership and change organizational learning and teams and crews The third section Understanding Organizations in High Risk Contexts explores organizations that deal regularly with risk uncertainty and crisis This section includes readings on risk and uncertainty high reliability organizing and crisis communication The publication concludes with Internet resources available for those interested in the management of fire organizations Social-Science Commentary on the Synoptic Gospels Bruce J. Malina,Richard L. Rohrbaugh, The authors build on their earlier social scientific works and enhance the highly successful commentary model they developed in their social scientific commentaries This volume is a thoroughly revised edition of this popular commentary They include an introduction that lays the foundation for their interpretation followed by an examination of each unit in the Synoptics employing methodologies of cultural anthropology macro sociology and social psychology Social Science Information in India S. D. Vyas,1992 Writing and Reading Connections Zoi A. Philippakos,Steve Graham,2022-11-18 Writing skills are essential for success in the 21st century school and workplace but most classrooms devote far more time to reading instruction with writing often addressed in isolation or excluded In this insightful professional development resource and text leading researchers discuss why and how to integrate writing and reading instruction in grades K 12 and beyond Contributors explore how to harness writing reading connections to support learning in such areas as phonics and spelling vocabulary understanding genre and text structure and self regulated strategy development as well as across content areas and disciplines Special considerations in teaching emergent bilingual students and struggling literacy learners are described User friendly features include guiding questions classroom examples and action questions that help teachers translate the research and concepts into practice An NCTQ Exemplary Text for Reading Instruction

Computational Thinking and Social Science Matti Nelimarkka, 2022-11-30 Whilst providing a fundamental understanding of computational social science this book delves into the tools and techniques used to build familiarity with programming and gain context into how why and when they are introduced The overall focus is on helping you understand and design computational social science research alongside delving into hands on coding and technical instruction Key features include Further reading Exercises accompanied by sample code Programming examples in Scratch Python and R Key concepts Chapter summaries With experience in course design and teaching Matti Nelimarkka has a deep understanding of learning techniques within computational social sciences with the main aim of blending researching thinking and designing together to gain a grounded foundation for coding programming methodologies and key concepts

Social-Science Commentary on the Gospel of John Bruce J. Malina, Richard L. Rohrbaugh, This work assembles and catalogs the values conflicts and mores of ancient Mediterranean culture pertinent to the Fourth Gospel In many ways the authors disclose the Fourth Gospel addresses an alienated antisociety fundamentally at odds with its predominant culture With its unique format charts and photos this social science commentary is the ideal companion for the study of the Fourth Gospel
