The Human A Priori A. W. Moore, 2023-07-09 The Human A Priori is a collection of essays by A W Moore one of them previously unpublished and the rest all revised These essays are all concerned more or less directly with something ineliminably anthropocentric in our systematic pursuit of a priori sense making Part I deals with the nature scope and limits of a priori sense making in general Parts II III and IV deal with what are often thought to be the three great exemplars of the systematic pursuit of such sense making philosophy in the case of Part II ethics in the case of Part III and mathematics in the case of Part IV Much of the attention throughout is devoted to the work of other philosophers Kant and Wittgenstein feature prominently and five of the essays take the form of reviews or critical notices of recent work in philosophy But the interest is never purely exegetical One of the lessons that emerges from the essays either in opposition to the views of these other philosophers or by invocation of their views is that we humans achieve nothing of real significance in philosophy ethics or mathematics except from a human point of view and hence that all three of these pursuits can be said to betoken what may reasonably be called the human a priori
