CHILDHOOD MEMORIES OF YNYSLAS...

One of the most vivid childhood memories I have of this area involved a fantastic day out at Tynllys beach. We were lucky to stay at my grandparents' static caravan in Aberystrwyth during the school holidays, quite often and on this occasion, both of my parents came down for the weekend. The weather was absolutely scorching so we jumped in the car and headed up to Tynllys for the day. If you read the section Tynllys and North, then you will already know that this place is a real paradise! When we arrived at Tynllys we made our way across the board walk through the sand dunes and onto the huge beach. With my most valuable dinghy in hand, I ran straight for the water. I was a complete wimp at that age (I think I was about 9 years old) so the dinghy offered safety from whatever was lurking in the sea. As the tide went out, a huge sandbank appeared cutting off a large pool of water from the sea. I remember being sat on my dinghy being pulled across to a desert island like sand bank with our little dog Jess swimming alongside. It was such a terrific day with fantastic weather. A truly special day in a great location that I don't think I'll ever forget!
