

The background of the book cover is a photograph of an ornate, classical ceiling. The ceiling features a grid of decorative panels, some of which are illuminated with a warm, golden light. In the center of the ceiling is a large, circular medallion containing a relief sculpture. Below the ceiling, a statue of a winged figure, possibly an angel or a personification of Reason, is visible. The figure is shown from the waist up, with its wings spread and its head turned slightly to the side.
