What Was Jesus Thinking? Frank R. Stirk, 2023-06-13 No one could ever get fully inside the mind of Jesus but we can gain important insights through a better understanding of the contexts in which he spoke and acted For example with whom was he speaking and interacting in that moment Where did this take place How can the events of the history of the period in general and the many new and often unexpected archaeological discoveries in particular from the time of Jesus enhance our understanding of what he was thinking And what light can the answers to these and related questions shed on what we already know about Jesus from the Four Gospels This book attempts to provide some answers to these questions with the intent of leading the reader toward a deeper understanding of his wholly human yet wholly divine character This in turn will hopefully create a deeper and more

In the Best Interest of Students Kelly Gallagher, 2023-10-10 In his new book In the Best Interest of Students Staying True to What Works in the ELA Classroom teacher and author Kelly Gallagher notes that there are real strengths in the Common Core standards and there are significant weaknesses as well He takes the long view reminding us that standards come and go but good teaching remains grounded in proven practices that sharpen students literacy skills Instead of blindly adhering to the latest standards movement Gallagher suggests Increasing the amount of reading and writing students are doing while giving students more choice around those activities Balancing rigorous high quality literature and non-fiction works with student-selected titles Encouraging readers to deepen their comprehension by moving beyond the four corners of the text Planning lessons that move beyond Common Core expectations to help young writers achieve more authenticity through the blending of genres Using modeling to enrich students writing skills in the prewriting drafting and revision stages Resisting the de-emphasis of narrative and imaginative reading and writing Amid the frenzy of trying to teach to a new set of standards Kelly Gallagher is a strong voice of reason reminding us that instruction should be anchored around one guiding question What is in the best interest of our students

Reading with Writing in Mind Nancy Charron, Marilyn Fenton, Margaret Harris, 2017-11-17

Good writing begins with good reading. This book is written on the premise that students must embrace reading as a part of the full process of good writing. It may be used by classroom teachers Grades 6-12 individually or collectively as members of a professional learning community by pre-service teachers in a literacy course or by other educators working to support literacy in the classroom. Interdisciplinary discussions relate to all types or genres of reading and writing. This book offers practical lessons and ideas for teaching and motivating all learners using Universal Design for Learning principles. Formatting provides additional ideas for challenged students including students with special needs, accelerated learners, and English Language Learners, and is aligned with Common Core State Standards for content subjects as well as for language arts. It takes ideas that were formerly reserved for the upper echelon of students in English language arts and reformulates teaching approaches to reach students across the learning spectrum and in all disciplines. All teachers need to be involved in raising the literacy bar, and this book provides activities and strategies for use in the classroom that can promote success for all learners.
