Rebecca Horn The Glance Of Infinity:

Beckett's afterlives Jonathan Bignell, Pim Verhulst, Anna McMullan, 2023-02-21 Despite the steady rise in adaptations of Samuel Beckett's work across the world following the author's death in 1989 Beckett's afterlives is the first book length study dedicated to this creative phenomenon The collection employs interrelated concepts of adaptation remediation and appropriation to reflect on Beckett's own evolving approach to crossing genre boundaries and to analyse the ways in which contemporary artists across different media and diverse cultural contexts including the UK Europe the USA and Latin America continue to engage with Beckett The book offers fresh insights into how his work has kept inspiring both practitioners and audiences in the twenty first century operating through methodologies and approaches that aim to facilitate and establish the study of modern day adaptations not just of Beckett but other multimedia authors as well Rebecca Horn Armin Zweite, Katharina Schmidt, Rebecca Horn, Doris von Drathen, 2006 This book is the first publication devoted to a previously largely overlooked group of works by the internationally acclaimed artist Rebecca Horn her rich and diverse graphic oeuvre The drawings completed by Rebecca Horn since the sixties include preliminary studies for sculptures works produced in conjunction with her sculptures and installations and entirely autonomous pieces Many of these diagrams scores technical designs and evidently spontaneous drawings are enriched with collaged objects printed words and lines of poetry BOOK JACKET

Making Art asks why this is so and what it would take for us to realize the extent of women's extraordinary contribution to the arts. Marsha Meskimmon mobilizes contemporary feminist thinking to reconsider how and why women have made art. She examines work by a wide range of women artists from different cultures and historical periods including Rebecca Horn, Rachel Whiteread, Shirin Neshat, and Maya Lin, emphasizing the diversity of women's art and the importance of differences between women.

Nietzsche's Philosophy of Life Affirmation Michael J. McNeal, 2024-12-23 This anthology broadly examines the interrelated roles of art, science, and experimentation in Nietzsche's philosophical project. It is divided into two parts: the first organized around the theme of experimentally reconceiving our world; the second investigating the aforementioned subjects in Nietzsche's free spirit or middle period works. Together, the essays comprising the book underscore Nietzsche's concern that experimentation with values ultimately provide humankind with a new wherefore or purpose. Wide-ranging in its scope, this volume brings together a diverse group of scholars working in both the analytic and continental traditions to provide original insights into Nietzsche's thought. A unique contribution to the scholarship, it deepens understanding of the relationship between Nietzsche's critiques of art and science, the role this relationship plays in his futuristic thought, and the experimental life-affirming practices that his free spirit project may enable toward the transfiguration of humankind.

Rebecca Horn Rebecca Horn, Carsten Ahrens, 1997 Rebecca Horn is a multi-talented artist whose kinetic sculptures, films, and installations have contributed to her unique international reputation. Her surreal installations and objects work as metaphors; often playfully erotic, they arouse curiosity and childlike amazement yet also subconsciously evoke fear and uncertainty. Glance of Infinity is a comprehensive survey of Rebecca Horn's work from 1970 up to the present day, including her most recently exhibited works at this year's Venice Biennale, for the new building of the Kestner Gesellschaft in Hannover, and in the Münster Skulptur Projekte in Münster, 1997. This full-scale monograph includes an interview with the artist and essays by Bruce W. Ferguson, Lynne Cooke, Doris von Drahten, and Rebecca Horn, as well as a comprehensive index. Beautifully designed and printed, it constitutes an invaluable work of reference and presents a complete visual documentation of the development of one of our most important contemporary artists.

Curating, Interpretation and Museums Sylvia Lahav, 2023-03-09 Following a period of strategic and ideological change in museums, this book outlines new attitudes in curating and display, education and learning, text and interpretation, access, inclusion, participation, space, and the issues around the sustainability of the encyclopaedic collection. Focused on the contemporary period, the author questions the extent to which the museum visitor has become reliant on interpretative text and examines the development of new museum spaces where visitor interaction and engagement is welcomed. Changes of attitude have transformed our museums into modern spaces that reflect current needs and modern expectations, and yet our permanent collections remain relatively unchanged, sometimes an uncomfortable reminder of a time when values, ethics, and attitudes were very different. The author will discuss these conflicts of ideology Written by a researcher with expertise in museum practice this shortform book offers a new approach that will be valuable reading for students and scholars of cultural management and policy as well as providing insights for reflective museum practitioners

Synesthesia and the Arts Dani Cavallaro, 2013-10-16 This study explores the relationship between synesthesia the experience of a sensation in one perceptual domain triggering a sensation in another perceptual domain and the arts including painting photography music and literature Its aim is twofold to introduce readers as yet unfamiliar with synesthesia to this intriguing phenomenon by focusing on its impact on the creation and reception of art and to alert readers already conversant with synesthesia in its many manifestations to its potential to encourage fresh ways of approaching art of understanding the part played by our bodies in its production and receipt and by extension of reassessing our position in nature as humans
