The Reception of the New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers Andrew Gregory, Christopher Tuckett, 2005-12-02 The two volume work The New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers offers a comparative study of two collections of early Christian texts the New Testament and the texts from immediately after the New Testament period which are conventionally referred to as the Apostolic Fathers The first volume The Reception of the New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers presents a comprehensive and rigorous discussion of the extent to which the writings later included in the New Testament were known to and used by each of the Apostolic Fathers Contemporary research on the textual traditions of both collections is used to address the questions of textual transmission and reception The New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers Andrew Gregory, Christopher Tuckett, 2005-12-01 The two volume work The New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers offers a comparative study of two collections of early Christian texts the New Testament and the texts from immediately after the New Testament period which are conventionally referred to as the Apostolic Fathers The first volume The Reception of the New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers presents a comprehensive and rigorous discussion of the extent to which the writings later included in the New Testament were known to and used by each of the Apostolic Fathers Contemporary research on the textual traditions of both collections is used to address the questions of textual transmission and reception The second volume Trajectories through the New Testament and the Apostolic Fathers discusses broad theological literary and historical issues that arise in the comparative study of these texts and which are of importance to the study of early Christianity It deals with the most important current debates concerning both the Apostolic Fathers and the New Testament such as baptism Pauline theology the function of apocalyptic elements Church order and Jewish and Christian identity The Making of Paul Richard I. Pervo, The influence of the apostle Paul in early Christianity goes far beyond the reach of the seven genuine letters he wrote to early assemblies Paul was revered and fiercely opposed in an even larger number of letters penned in his name and in narratives told about him and against him that were included in our New Testament and far more often treasured and circulated outside it Richard Pervo provides an illuminating and comprehensive survey of the legacy of Paul and the various ways he was remembered honored and vilified in the early churches The Apostolic Fathers and Paul Todd D. Still, David E. Wilhite, 2016-12-01 Building on the work of Tertullian and Paul this volume continues a series of specially commissioned studies by leading voices in New Testament Early Christianity and Patristics studies to consider how Paul was read interpreted and received by the Church Fathers In this volume the use of Paul's writings is examined within the work of the Apostolic Fathers Issue of influence reception theology and history are examined to show how Paul's work influenced the developing theology of the early Church The literary style of Paul's output is also examined The contributors to the volume represent leading lights in the study of the Apostolic Fathers as well as respected names from the field of New Testament studies The New Testament in the Apostolic Fathers Oxford Society Of Historical Theology, 2014-03 This Is A

Young, 2011 This dissertation reevaluates the tradition of Jesus sayings in the Apostolic Fathers in light of the growing recognition of the impact of orality upon early Christianity and its writings At the beginning of the last century it was common to hold that the Apostolic Fathers made wide use of the canonical Gospels While a number of studies have since called this view into question many of them simply replace the theory of dependence upon canonical Gospels with one of dependence upon other written sources No full scale study of Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers has been published which takes into account the last four decades of new research into oral tradition in the wake of the pioneering work of Milman Parry and Albert Lord Based on this new research the present dissertation advances the thesis that an oral traditional source best explains the form and content of the explicit appeals to Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers that predate 2 Clement In the course of the discussion attention is drawn to the ways in which the Jesus tradition in the Apostolic Fathers informs our understanding of the use of oral tradition in Christian antiquity The Departure of an Apostle Alexander N. Kirk, 2015-11-05 What was Paul's attitude toward his own death How did he act and what did he say and write in view of it What hopes did he hold for himself beyond death Alexander N Kirk explores these questions through a close reading of four Pauline letters that look ahead to Paul's death and other relevant texts in the first two generations after Paul's death AD 70-160 The author studies portraits of the departed Paul in Acts 1 Clement the letters of Ignatius Polycarp's letter To the Philippians and the Martyrdom of Paul He also examines portraits of the departing Paul in

1 and 2 Corinthians Philippians and 2 Timothy arguing that Paul's death did not primarily present an existential challenge but a pastoral one. Although touching upon several areas of recent scholarly interest, Alexander N. Kirk sets forth a new research question and fresh interpretations of early Christian and Pauline texts. The Early Text of the New Testament Charles E. Hill, Michael J. Kruger, 2012-06-14. The Early Text of the New Testament aims to examine and assess from our earliest extant sources the most primitive state of the New Testament text now known. What sort of changes did scribes make to the text? What is the quality of the text now at our disposal? What can we learn about the nature of textual transmission in the earliest centuries? In addition to exploring the textual and scribal culture of early Christianity, this volume explores the textual evidence for all the sections of the New Testament. It also examines the evidence from the earliest translations of New Testament writings and the citations or allusions to New Testament texts in other early Christian writers.
