Theology of Discontent Hamid Dabashi, Scores of books and articles have been published addressing one or another aspect of the Islamic Revolution in Iran Missing from this body of scholarship however has been a comprehensive analysis of the intellectual and ideological cornerstones of one of the most dramatic revolutions in our time In this remarkable volume Hamid Dabashi brings together in a sustained and engagingly written narrative the leading revolutionaries who have shaped the ideological disposition of this cataclysmic event Dabashi has spent over ten years studying the writings in their original Persian and Arabic of the most influential Iranian clerics and thinkers Examining the revolutionary sentiments and ideas of such figures as Jalal Al-e Ahmad Ali Shariati Morteza Motahhari Sayyad Abolhasan Bani Sadr and finally the Ayatollah Khomeini the work also analyzes the larger historical and theoretical implications of any construction of the Islamic Ideology Carefully located in the social and intellectual context of the four decades preceding the 1979 revolution Theology of Discontent is the definitive treatment of the ideological foundations of the Islamic Revolution with particular attention to the larger more enduring ramifications of this revolution for radical Islamic revivalism in the entire Muslim world This volume will be of interest to Islamicists Middle East historians and specialists as well as scholars and students of liberation theologies comparative religious revolutions and mass collective behavior Bruce Lawrence of Duke University calls this volume a superb and unprecedented study In brilliant figural strokes he arrays EuroAmerican sociological theory as the crucial backdrop of a deeper understanding of contemporary Iranian history Hamid Dabashi is professor of Persian studies at Columbia University He is the author of among other works the acclaimed Authority in Islam From the Rise of Muhammad to the Establishment of the Umayyads issued by Transaction which won the Association of American Publishers Award for most outstanding professional and scholarly publication in religion and philosophy Islam and Modernism Vanessa Martin,1989 The 1906 revolution established the Iranian state a constitution legal and political systems and a Western style economy separate from the religious institutions of Shi'ia Martin history London U examines the role played by the ulama the traditional body of the clerical elite in this change and surveys the relations between the ulama and the state until the 1979 revolution restored religious primacy Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Islam and Revolution in the Middle East Henry Munson,1988-01-01 Analyzes the role of Islam in Middle Eastern society and politics addresses the differences between the Sunni and Shi'i sects and discusses why an Islamic revolution occurred only in Iran Religion and Revolution in Iran Mohammad N. Apocalyptic Islam and Iranian Shi'ism Abbas Amanat,2009-02-19 Interest in Shi'i Islam is running at unprecedented levels International tensions over Iran where the largest number of Shi'i Muslims live as well as the political resurgence of the Shi'i in Iraq and Lebanon have created an urgent need to understand the background beliefs and motivations of this dynamic vision of Islam Abbas Amanat is one of the leading scholars of Shi'ism And in this powerful book a showcase for some of his most influential writing in the field he addresses the colourful and diverse history of Shi' Islam in both premodern and contemporary times Focusing specifically on the importance of apocalypticism in the development of modern Shi'i theology he shows how an immersion in messianic ideas has shaped the conservative character of much Shi'i thinking and has prevented it from taking a more progressive course Tracing the continuity of apocalyptic trends from the Middle Ages to the present Amanat addresses such topics as the early influence on Shi'ism of Zoroastrianism manifestations of apocalyptic ideology during the Iranian Revolution of 1979 and the rise of the Shi'i clerical establishment during the 19th and 20th centuries His book will be an essential resource for students and scholars of both religious studies and Middle Eastern history 'Ali Shari'ati and the Shaping of Political Islam in Iran K. Islam and Revolution, 1981 Religion and Revolution John Andrew Morrow, 2012-03-15 Religion and Revolution provides a comprehensive study of spiritual and political Islam in Ernesto Cardenal the great Latin American poet priest and revolutionary The work studies the relationship between Thomas Merton and Cardenal's connection to spiritual Islam as well as the sources cited in his Cosmic Canticle The work equally examines the impact of political Islam on his ideology focusing particularly on his trip to Iran during the very triumph of the Islamic Revolution Using Cardenal's Interlude of the Revolution in Iran as a starting point the work provides a vivid and detailed description of the early days of the revolution as well as the ties between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the Latin American left An Analysis of Hamid Dabashi's Theology of Discontent Magdalena C. Delgado, Bryan Gibson, 2017-07-05 Hamid Dabashi's 1997 work Theology of Discontent reveals a creative thinker capable not only of understanding how an argument is built but also of redefining old issues in new ways The Iranian Revolution of 1978-9 was front page news in the West and in some ways remains so today Though it was an uprising against authoritarian royal rule with a coalition of modernisers and Islamists the revolution saw the birth of a new Islamic Republic that seemed to reject pro Western democracy Dabashi wanted to analyze the real reasons for this change while examining how Islamic ideologies contributed to the revolution and the republic that followed Theology of Discontent examines different Islamic thinkers analyzing how views with seemingly little in common contributed to the modern Iranian belief system Beyond its insightful analytical dissection of these eight thinkers Theology of Discontent also shows Dabashi's creative thinking skills Reframing the debates about Iran's relationship with the West he traced the ways in which Iranian identity formed in reactive opposition to Western ideas In many ways Dabashi suggested Iran was trapped in a cycle of deliberately asserting its difference from the West a process that was fundamental to the development of its own unique brand of revolutionary Islamism Islam and Revolution Ruh Allah ibn Mustafa Khumaini (Ayat Allah), 1985

Political Islam, Iran, and the Enlightenment Ali Mirsepassi, 2010-12-06 Ali Mirsepassi's book presents a powerful challenge to the dominant media and scholarly construction of radical Islamist politics and their anti-Western ideology as a purely Islamic phenomenon derived from insular traditional and monolithic religious foundations It argues that the discourse of political Islam has strong connections to important and disturbing currents in Western philosophy and modern Western intellectual trends The work demonstrates this by establishing links between important contemporary Iranian intellectuals and the central influence of Martin Heidegger s philosophy We are also introduced to new democratic narratives of modernity linked to diverse intellectual trends in the West and in non Western societies notably in India where the ideas of John Dewey have influenced important democratic social movements As the first book to make such connections it promises to be an important contribution to the field and will do much to overturn some pervasive assumptions about the dichotomy between East and West
