The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature Laura Hobgood, Whitney A. Bauman, 2018-05-17 Divided into four parts Earth Air Fire and Water this book takes an elemental approach to the study of religion and ecology It reflects recent theoretical and methodological developments in this field which seek to understand the ways that ideas and matter minds and bodies exist together within an immanent frame of reference The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Nature focuses on how these matters materialize in the world around us thereby addressing key topics in this area of study The editors provide an extensive introduction to the book as well as useful introductions to each of its parts The volume s international contributors are drawn from the USA South Africa Netherlands Norway Indonesia and South Korea and offer a variety of perspectives voices cultural settings and geographical locales This handbook shows that human concern and engagement with material existence is present in all sectors of the global community regardless of religious tradition It challenges the traditional methodological approach of comparative religion and argues that globalization renders a comparative religious approach to the environment insufficient

The Theology of the Christian Life in J.I. Packer's Thought Don J. Payne, 2006-06-01 This study offers a critical analysis of J I Packer s theology of the Christian life Packer has achieved international acclaim and wielded widespread influence within evangelicalism for more than three decades particularly through his writings on the doctrine of sanctification His approach to sanctification is examined in light of the theological anthropology and theological method that constitute its unique structure and assumptions J I Packer has been one of the most recognized evangelical theologians of the late twentieth century Among his theological passions is anchoring the Christian life in the legacy of Reformed theology particularly that expressed by seventeenth century English Puritanism Yet his treatment of the doctrine of sanctification is shaped by two other influences theological anthropology and theological method This hermeneutical exploration of Packer s treatment of sanctification offers fresh insight into his thought and demonstrates the often unnoticed impact of theological anthropology and theological method within evangelical theology

Sustainability and Health Valerie A. Brown, John Grootjans, Jan Ritchie, Mardie Townsend, Glenda Verrinder, 2014-04-08 Radical changes in the biosphere and human interaction with the environment are increasingly impacting on the health of populations across the world Diseases are crossing the species barrier and spreading rapidly through globalised transport systems From new patterns of cancer to the threat of global pandemics it is imperative that public health practitioners acknowledge the interdependence between the sustainability of the environment and the sustainability of the human species Why are issues of global and local sustainability of increasing importance to the public s health Why do issues of sustainability require new practices within the professions of public health How can future and current public health practitioners develop those new practices Drawing on scientific evidence of global and local environmental changes Sustainability and Health offers a thorough background and practical solutions to the overlapping issues in environment and health It examines potential and existing responses to global and local environment and health issues involving individuals community industry and government The authors introduce a range of emerging conceptual frameworks and theoretical perspectives link IT and epidemiology and explain how scoping can link program design delivery data collection and evaluation in projects from their very beginning Public health practitioners need to be able to manage health issues that cut across environmental economic and social systems and to develop the capacity for leadership in facilitating change Incorporating learning activities readings international case studies and an open learning approach this is a valuable resource for students of public and environmental health as well as medical environmental and health science professionals

Contextualization David J. Hesselgrave, Edward Rommen, 2000-09-01 Meanings Methods and Models Contextualization Meanings Methods and Models is a classic textbook that brings together the meanings proposals and tasks involved in contextualization The authors trace its historical development beginning with its roots in the Bible and early Church They examine how cultural linguistic and theological elements influence the way the Gospel is communicated across different contexts The book highlights how the Church has wrestled with expressing timeless truths in culturally relevant ways while maintaining biblical integrity Hesselgrave and Rommen engage with the ideas of key theologians and missiologists evaluating a range of contextualization models from traditional mission methods to more adaptive culture centered approaches They provide a balanced critique of these proposals identifying both strengths and limitations The authors conclude by offering their own definition and approach to contextualization one that is both faithful to Scripture and practically effective for global mission work today

Religious Horror and the Ecogothic Mary Going, Kathleen Hudson, 2024-06-10 Religious Horror and the Ecogothic explores the intersections of Anglophone Christianity and the Ecogothic a subgenre that explores the ecocritical in Gothic literature film and media Acknowledging the impact of Christian ideologies upon interpretations of human relationships with the environment the Ecogothic in turn interrogates spiritual identity and humanity's darker impulses in relation to ecological systems Through a survey of Ecogothic texts from the eighteenth century to the present day this book illuminates the ways in which a Christianized understanding of hierarchy dominion fear and sublimity shapes reactions to the environment and conceptions of humanity's place therein It interrogates the discourses which inform environmental policy as well as definitions of the human in a rapidly changing world

Hermeneutical Narratives in Christian Religious Experience Malgorzata Haladewicz-Grzelak, Malgorzata Widel-Ignaszczak, 2025-09-18 This book explores the intersection of culture language and religious experience and approaches hermeneutics as a meta perspective to address Christian religious communication It draws on the work of scholars from diverse geographical areas and academic fields with a particular emphasis on Orthodox and Catholic Christianity and Slavic scholarship The volume explores Christian experiential identities through hermeneutics and phenomenology in the context of diversity across denominations through theolinguistic and sociopragmatic perspectives It offers the reader an exploration of specific cultural textscapes considering the space of devotional and religious narrations in a variety of discourses The chapters consider how the Gospel is conditioned and developed by specific strands of Christianity the values that emerge through cultural contact and contact of specific denominations how religion interacts with wider societal issues and processes of sacralization and desacralization of culture space and expression Offering critical insights into hermeneutics in the tradition of Schleiermacher Gadamer and Ricoeur it presents a variety of case studies and topics including Andalusian saeta Biblical studies Icelandic hagiographies issues of adaptation and exoticisation of the language of religious minorities Old Church Slavonic scriptures the Shrine of Fatima in Portugal and sign language Through its exploration of religious narratives and interactions the book not only broadens our understanding of Christian experience but also fosters dialogue across disciplines and cultures

The Vicarious Humanity of Christ and the Reality of Salvation Christian D. Kettler, 2011-03-01 In this book the problem of the reality of salvation is addressed by T F Torrance's doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ Through this approach salvation as humanization is affirmed yet without the problems of anthropocentric theologies This book is unique in that it offers both a survey of contemporary Christian thinking on salvation as well as a constructive alternative based on Torrance's doctrine a significant yet neglected contribution to modern theology

Role of the Holy Spirit in Protestant Systematic Theology Wilson Varkey, 2011-08 This volume is a meticulously researched text on pneumatology that puts the major pneumatological issues together without confining to the traditional way of dealing with the doctrine of the Holy Spirit Although pneumatology has been a neglected field in theological discussions of the past there is a renewal of interest among theologians on pneumatology today This renewal of interest has led to the formation of this work on the role of the Holy Spirit in the Protestant Systematic Theology Through highlighting the role and significance of the Holy Spirit in the whole divine action this volume contends that pneumatology is not a dull theological locus but rather an essential theological disposition relevant for today The detailed arguments found within challenge and inspire the contemporary pneumatological discussions as it relates to all the facets of theological reflection and action

Ritual and Religion in the Making of Humanity Roy A. Rappaport, 1999-03-25 Roy Rappaport argues that religion is central to the continuing evolution of life although it has been displaced from its original position of intellectual authority by the rise of modern science His book which could be construed as in some degree religious as well as about religion insists that religion can and must be reconciled with science Combining adaptive and cognitive approaches to the study of humankind he mounts a comprehensive analysis of religion's evolutionary significance seeing it as co-extensive with the invention of language and hence of culture as we know it At the same time he assembles the fullest study yet of religion's main component ritual which constructs the conceptions which we take to be religious and has been central in the making of humanity's adaptation The text amounts to a manual for effective ritual illustrated by examples drawn from anthropology history philosophy comparative religion and elsewhere

Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-06-01 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level

The Primacy of God: The Virtue of Religion in Catholic Theology R. Jared Staudt, 2022-02-08 To contemporary minds the notion of justice toward God is seldom considered and often foreign Far more discussed is how God might either undermine or motivate social justice The Primacy of God by R Jared Staudt offers an important intervention With the aid of St Thomas Aquinas Staudt argues that it is vital for both contemporary society and contemporary Catholic theology to return to the traditional view of God as the one to whom all human and social action must be ordered and to recover the virtue of religion as the virtue which orders all other virtues to God Not only does Staudt helpfully remind readers of the ancient philosophical and biblical notion of worship as a dictate of the natural law he also illuminates the way in which Christian liturgy as an enactment of Christ's high priesthood is the great fulfillment of natural and biblical worship Accordingly Staudt secures religion as essential for the virtue of love This brings Staudt to criticize modern theologians like Karl Barth who claimed that religion is inherently idolatrous as well as Karl Rahner who claimed that love of neighbor is the highest moral act Staudt also considers the question of religious truth in light of the plurality of religions soliciting the assistance of Hans Urs von Balthasar and Joseph Ratzinger as well as the way in which religion relates to the development of culture engaging the great

The Impact Of Reason On Faith, Ethics And Belief Geran F. Dodson,2020-10-06 The purpose of the book is to examine the theological claims of ethics faith and belief from a philosophical perspective The Abrahamic and Mosaic covenants of the Old Testament Jesus of the synoptic gospels and Paul s writings serve as the frame of reference in examining a biblical expression of reason and structured logic The message of Jesus centered on the Kingdom of God defined the meaning of faith and belief established a new ethic and framed the message in logic forms The life and death of Jesus brought the realization of God s final covenant as prophesied by the Old Testament However Paul appropriated and developed the Jesus of history into the mythological eschatological Christ figure The clash of philosophy and theology is evident with theological presuppositions that are based on spiritual insight and divine revelation Logic in scripture employs propositions based primarily on revealed proof that is within the context of that which cannot be proven absolutely Uncovering the identity of YHWH in the manuscripts and religious practices of Canaanite culture clearly associated YHWH with the polytheism of the Ugarit texts YHWH was one of the seventy sons of the Canaanite Most High God El and took on a unique identity that was rooted in El and the polytheistic nature of the pantheon of gods Theological truths stand within the context of faith and reason stands apart from faith and infers only that which can be proven based on evidence That which is knowable by faith cannot be known by reason since reason cannot validate that which is not proven to exist Rural Manhood Henry Israel,1916 Rural Manhood ,1916
